O 1919 U

In Memory of Professor Eli Dunkle

THE CLASS OF 1919 has been fortunate in having as its Class Professor a man who was a friend, counselor and advisor. No matter how large or how small our troubles, we always found in him a sympathetic listener, a friend who was more than eager to help us through the many difficulties of our college life. As a small means of showing our appreciation, we dedicate this book to the kind memory of PROFESSOR ELI DUNKLE.

Eli Dunkle

Professor Eli Dunkle was born at McArthur, Ohio, January 31, 1856, and died at Athens, Ohio, February 17, 1919. He matriculated at Ohio University in the fall of 1873 and graduated in 1877 with the degree of A. B. Three years later he received his master's degree. From 1878 until 1884 he was engaged in public school work, heading the schools of Hamden for several years. In 1884 he became principal of the preparatory department at Ohio University and in 1892 became associate professor of Greek. He was at the head of the preparatory department until 1900 and associate professor of Greek until 1907 when he took over the department. From 1890 until 1908 he was a member of the board of school examiners of Athens County. He was a member of the American Philological Association, and while in the university was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

For a number of years he was registrar at the university and knew thousands of former students personally. About three years ago he retired as registrar and has since devoted his whole time to the Greek department. In point of service he was one of the oldest instructors at the university and was widely known and highly respected.

In Memoriam

How softly thru the chapel's storied pane,
A flood of rainbow sunshine pours like rain
Upon his face a little while,
And bathes in light his kindly smile.

Again the sunlight searches for him there,
But finds where he has been an empty chair,
And yet it seeks him not in vain,
What seems all loss has this of gain:

That every face remaining here awhile
Reflects the mellow kindness of his smile,
And days to come, some sunbeam fair
Shall find him living everywhere.

JOSEPHINE WUEBEN

GREETINGS

IF
Years hence
when we are scattered one from another, a reinspection, of these pages should occasion a train of happy thoughts and reminiscences in the mind of one who has known—
OHIO UNIVERSITY
of old,
and holds her memories dear,
then indeed will these modest efforts not have been in vain.

—Excerpt from "Who's Who in America"

RICHESON, JOHN J., B. PED., PED. D.

In 1910 the Faculty of Ohio University was fortunate in adding to its roll John J. Richeson. By so doing it brought to the University a man who was destined to grow and with that growth to increase the efficiency of the college. The visible evidences of such an expansion can be seen in the flourishing condition of the Normal School of which Dr. Richeson became the head in 1914. From that time on he has expended every effort to heighten the standard of his college.

His familiarity with school problems and school men has fitted him for his position. His never-tiring efforts to assist every student with whom he comes in contact and the sympathetic, co-operative attitude with which he meets their needs, win for him the admiration and love of the students of Ohio University. The whole-hearted and enthusiastic manner in which he performs his duties wins for him the respect of both faculty and student body alike.

VOIGT, IRMA E. (DEAN OF WOMEN), A. B., A. M., PH. D.

The interests of the young women at Ohio University are taken care of by Dean Irma E. Voigt. Dean Voigt has been on the faculty six years and each year her influence grows greater and is more widely felt. Friendliness among the girls has increased and the discipline, which never seems severe, is sufficient to uphold the moral tone of O. U. Coupled with these qualities is found a scholarly and brilliant mind and a broad and thorough education and culture.

Anyone who has ever come under her influence, man or woman, faculty or student, will testify that in Dean Voigt we have indeed "a rare spirit."

Senior Class Officers

President	ROBERT G. BOWDEN
Vice-President	ELIZABETH MURRAY
Secretary	JENNETTE COEN
Treasurer	JAMES L. BECK

ROBERT G. BOWDEN, A.B.

Newark, Ohio

Beta Theta Pi; Tau Kappa Alpha; Torch; English Club; Booklovers Club; Intercollegiate Debate (1); President Senior Class; Chairman of Green and White Board of Control.

A man of dignity, force, and ease of manner. "Bob," one of the best student ministers this school has ever turned out. The numerous offices he has held in school only foreshadow his coming success.

JENNETTE COEN, A.B.

Bowling Green, Ohio

Pi Beta Phi; Cresset; Oyo; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Pan Hellenic; Glee Club; Athena Staff; Class Secretary (4).

One of O. U.'s 1919 daughters who does things. We have the utmost respect for the person who can distribute her attention over many fields without slighting any one activity in which she is engaged; this Jacy has done.

JAMES L. BECK, B.S. in Ed.

Coshocton, Ohio

Lambda Chi Alpha; Board of Control Green and White (4); Senate (3, 4); Y. M. C. A.; Pan-Hellenic (4); Class Treasurer (4); B.S. in Ed. Club, President (4).

Beck is a hard working student, although his studies have not kept him from entering outside work. He is one of those men who appreciates a college education and is not afraid to say so. The business world can use more like him, and so can O. U.

ELIZABETH MURRAY, A.B.

Congo, Ohio

Cresset; Oyo; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3, 4); Class Vice-President (4); Woman's League; French Club; Athenian Literary.

You can tell by Elizabeth's walk that she's a good executive. Very business-like. Never starts anything that she can't finish. Her sense of humor is as highly developed as her intellect. She is a person whom we may recall with pleasure.

BLOWDEN JANE MORGAN, B.S. in Ed.

Martins Ferry, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Choral (1); B.S. in Ed Club.

Everybody likes Blowden; they could not very well help it. Quiet, distant, reserved, but when once you have broken down the wall she has built up around her, it all is transformed into one of the most tractable dispositions we have ever known.

EVERETT M. STOWE, A.B.

Highland, Ohio

Phi Kappa Tau; Chrestomathean; Book-lover's Club; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet.

Stowe is one of those quiet, unassuming persons who have plenty to do and always does it well. Those who know him well can vouch for the fact that his Irish face is full of good humor and as a student he is without a doubt a shark.

ZUA SHOEMAKER, B.S. in Ed.

Piketon, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Oyo; Chrestomathean; Woman's League; Green and White Staff (3).

We think that Zua would make a good soldier—always ready for work, always cheerful and always keeping her head whatever emergency may arise.

JOSEPHINE S. HIGBY, A.B.

Chillicothe, Ohio

Pi Beta Phi; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League.

Joe is rather quiet, but altogether charming. We haven't room to say all the good things we could about her.

MARIE LOUISE VOIGT, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Sigma Kappa; Oberlin Conservatory; Cresset; Advisory Board (3); Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Athena Staff; French Club; French Play (4); Art Club; Green and White Staff (4).

Marie is a happy combination of music, sociability, and brains. A Cresset pin is a child's toy for her, but she is not at all proud of her wisdom. When you want anything done well just enlist her services; she can always be depended upon to carry out her promises.

ANNA ROWAN, B.S. in Ed.

Napoleon, Ohio

Cresset; Oyo; French Club; Art Club; Y. W. C. A.; Advisory Board; Woman's League.

Ann has the distinction of being an absolutely original girl. Isn't like anyone else at all. Her artistic skill promises much for her future.

ARTHUR H. DUMAREE, B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

Phi Kappa Tau; Pan-Hellenic, President; Chemical Society, President; Science Club; Y. M. C. A.

"Art's" career in O. U. has been widely varied from Y. M. C. A. to the Science Club and from there to the Shoe Store. In spite of the "rep" which he established in Boyd Hall the first few years, he has become a Senior in the real sense of the word.

NAOMI CALDWELL, B.S. in Ed.

Urbana, Ohio

Alpha Sigma Alpha, President (3, 4); Oyo; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; German Club (2); Cercle Francais; French Play (4); Green and White Staff; Athenian Literary.

Naomi is one who can make us laugh when we are plunged in the depths of despair. Her frank remarks, to the point and spicy withal, have won for her the laurels of having a "head like a tack."

EDITH LEORA PORTER, B.S. in Ed.

Vincent, Ohio

Aloquin; Cresset; Oyo; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, Treasurer; Glee Club; Philomathean; Woman's League; Choral.

Edith is a star in her class work. The professors say she is a good student, but we say that she is just naturally smart. She has much talent along the line of music and we shall greatly miss her next year.

J. F. ALFORD, B.S. in Ed.

Bremen, Ohio

Y. M. C. A.; Ohio Northern University; Philomathean; English Club.

Alford could not stay away from O. U., so is with us this year to get his sheepskin. It will represent hard work and sacrifice, but his industry, cheerfulness and determination make it plain that he will make a name for himself wherever he goes.

ANNA BELLE SPEYER, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Biology Club; Secretary (2); Chrestomathean Literary; Secretary (3); Platonian Literary; Science Club; French Club; French Play.

Here again we have one of our modest students, who hasn't much to say. But if there is anything in this world that she is afraid of, most assuredly it is not work. You will always find her tomorrow what she is today.

MABLE TAYLOR, A.B.

Pennsboro, W. Va.

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Philomathean Literary Society.

Art and practice teaching seem to be Mable's strong points, but as a side line she excells in fortune telling. One who is incapable of hurting anyone's feelings, and is the possessor of a vast amount of good sense.

HELEN MULLINEUX MAUCK, A.B.

Gallipolis, Ohio

Pi Beta Phi; Cresset; Oyo; President Woman's League (4); Y. W. C. A.; Science Club (1); Secretary Sohomopre Class; Pan Hellenic Council.

Helen is one of the most popular and best-liked girls in college, and she surely deserves it. One we must call a capable girl. That's what you think when you see her but know when you get acquainted with her. We are beginning to be jealous of the lucky world that gets her next June.

JOHN MICHAEL WILLIAMS, A.B.

Jacksonville, Ohio

Y. M. C. A.; Torch; Delta Tau Delta; Editor-in-Chief 1919 Athena; Cercle Francais (3).

Our popular Editor-in-Chief. He's into "most everything." Those who know him understand the reason. His vim and energy spell "go" from the start. He more than makes up in quality what he lacks in quantity.

MARGARET MATILDA DURRETT, A.B.

Circleville, Ohio

Alpha Delta Pi, President (4); Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League, Secretary (4); Athena Staff; Pan-Hellenic.

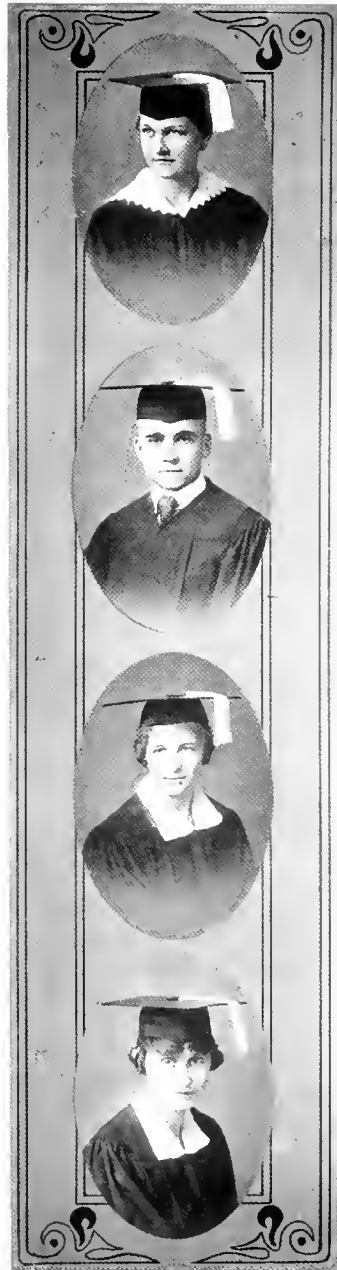

A little ray of sunshine! Everyone will remember "Marg" and her bright eyes. She is a cheerful and willing worker in everything and is always busy at something. Well liked by all and a true friend to everyone, she will be a worthy representative of her Alma Mater.

MARIE ROMAINE DOWNING, A.B.

Middleport, Ohio

Pi Beta Phi; Sweet Briar College; University of Cincinnati; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League.

Altho Ohio was not Marie's first choice, she is glad that she could be an Ohioan for one year. We feel more like saying "Hello" to Marie than we do bidding her goodbye.

FREDA F. WARREN, B.S. in Ed.

Pleasant City, Ohio

Athenian; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League. In literary work she has taken a prominent part and we believe she will make her mark as a teacher, always reflecting credit on her Alma Mater.

LOWELL PRICE, A.B.

Logan, Ohio

Phi Kappa Tau; Y. M. C. A. "A true knight, not yet mature, but matchless." A lad who possesses the ability of doing a great many things, and of doing them well.

HELEN EDITH STOCKLIN, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Alpha Xi Delta; Cresset, Vice-President (3, 4); Biology Club; French Club; Athenian; Oyo; Woman's League; Y. W. C. A.; Advisory Board; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

Edith is one of the few girls who has been with the class since its origin. Unanimously conceded to be one of the brightest girls in school. A good converser and a most obliging person.

ISABEL ELIZABETH BACON, B.S. in Ed.

Kinsman, Ohio

Aloquin; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Philomathean; Home Economics Club (1, 2).

Isabel is a quiet maiden with deep brown eyes and a great store of cook-book knowledge. They say a person's education should fit her for after life; surely there could be no happier combination of attributes than those of the mental and domestic type.

JUANITA MARIE PACE, A.B.

Roseville, Ohio

Aloquin; Cresset; Oyo; Athenian, Vice-President (4); English Club; Glee Club (4); Choral (4); Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Athena Staff; Graduate in Elementary Economy.

As a student she belongs to the silent few who "pull" A's and B's. She has been deeply interested in Y. W. C. A., in fact every activity in school has known her at one time or another. Soon we expect her to be authority on domestic economy.

MARY BUCHANAN, B.S. in Ed.

Waterford, Ohio

Sigma Sigma Sigma, President (4); Pan Hellenic (4); Green and White Staff (4); Athenian Literary; French Club; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Board of Control of Green and White; B.S. in Ed. Club.

Mary's gray eyes fairly sparkle with mischief in spite of the very serene and innocent expression of her face. Beware of these meek, demure expressions. They do cover a world of roguery.

F. C. RANDELL, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Y. M. C. A.; Graduate of Johnson Bible College, Knoxville, Tenn.

A man who takes life very seriously. Should he continue his ministerial work, we predict an excellent future for him.

JULIA L. CABLE, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Aloquin; Athenian; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League.

She keeps her thoughts to herself and goes serenely on her way. She is never known to fail when you depend upon her. The Faculty knows her well.

EDNA DELL FRENCH, A.B.

Washington C. H., Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Oyo.

A girl with a very dignified bearing, but not without a sense of humor. One who knows the proper thing to do and always does it.

J. A. MALONE, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Y. M. C. A.

A diligent student whose quiet determination will certainly, some day, spell unusual success for him. He is a perpetual surprise even to those who know him best.

FLOLA LAKE SHEPARD, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Woman's League (1-4); Choral (1); German Club (1, 2, Pres. 2); Philomathean (2, 3, 4); Revelers; College Play (1); Cercle Francais (3, 4, Pres. 4); French Play (2, 3, 4).

Flola is one of our "village folk." Her specialty has been French and in this she excells.

MAYME VIRGINIA JOHNSON, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Cresset; French Club, President (3); College Orchestra; Y. W. C. A.

A very attractive, unassuming girl, but nevertheless attracts your attention by the quality of her work. She hath music in her soul. Is especially partial to the violin.

GRACE SHERMAN, A.B.

Buckeye City, Ohio

Aloquin; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Athenian, Secretary (3, 4); Oyo; Choral Society; The Teutons (2, 3).

A very quiet girl. Nevertheless, surprises you at the most unexpected moment by the way in which she can expound knowledge.

VIRGIL PETTIT, A.B.

Logan, Ohio

Phi Kappa Tau; Y. M. C. A. Virgil is one of those quiet fellows whose sterling worth is not apparent on the first glance, but it is there just the same.

PATIENCE LEONARD, B.S. in Ed.

Bremen, Ohio

Aloquin; Cresset; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Economics Club, President (4); French Club.

Patience is studious and domestic, which means she has "made good" on the campus as well as in Household Economics, for verily "she can sew a fine seam." Success to you, Patience, in everything.

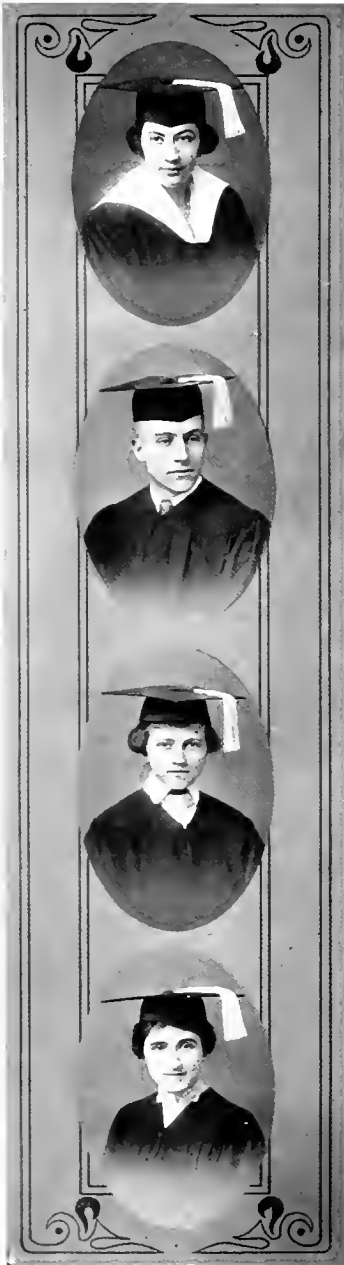

ELMER EDWIN SNYDER, A.B.

Barberton, Ohio

Y. M. C. A.; B.S. Ohio Northern University, '18.

What to do with a man who smiles all the time, and even in his sleep, is indeed a puzzle. They say he has a big heart, so look out. The bigger they are the harder they fall! Good luck tho in your quest.

MARY LAURENCE FULTON, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Pi Beta Phi; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; French Club.

Mary always wears a regular "Sunny Jim" smile. Is a good talker but a better bluffer. Belongs to the clan that absolutely believes in enjoying life.

ROBERT S. BONE, A.B.

Nenia, Ohio

Delta Tau Delta; Torch, President (4); Y. M. C. A., President (4); Glee Club.

During his four years at O. U. Bob has stood for the things that the true spirit of school stands for. Even when a big, bewildered, gray-eyed Freshman, his attitude was resolute. When it comes to rushing the "dorm" he is most versatile. May good luck follow you on your business.

ANNE JAMES McNAUGHTEN, A.B.

Pleasantville, Ohio

Alpha Gamma Delta; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; French Club; Athena Staff; Advisory Board (3); Basketball Captain (3), (4); Pan-Hellenic Council.

Anne has been with us two years. In that time she has won many friends. She is one of the most "all around" girls in school, excelling in whatever she undertakes. She knows well how to blend her athletic, educational, religious and social activities.

BESSIE DARLING, B.S. in Ed.

Warsaw, Ohio

Alpha Xi Delta; Athenian Literary; Woman's League; Girls' Glee Club ('18); Y. W. C. A.; Domestic Science Club.

"Bess" has a sparkle in her eye as well as on the third finger of her left hand. Writes many letters but "mere words are inadequate to express her thoughts."

HOWARD C. BOBO, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Delta Tau Delta; Torch, President (3); Booklover's Club, President (3); Athenian Literary Society, President (3); Y. M. C. A.

Just about everyone in school knows Bobo. His willing spirit has made him a host of friends. He is one of those rare men who combine ability and dependability. He throws himself into his work and makes it go, the reason for his being President of so many organizations.

MARZUELA RICHARDS, B.S. in Ed.,

A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Alpha Delta Pi, President (3); Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Glee Club; Oyo; Pan-Hellenic, President (4); French Club; French Plays (4); Platonian; Choral Society (1-4).

"Marzie" is a perfect jewel. We can't say things too good for her. If you want anything done, ask Marzie, she never quits until a task is finished. The world will know when she gets into the field of service.

RUMER YAW, A.B.

Glouster, Ohio

Beta Theta Pi; Y. M. C. A.

"Rumer" has been one of the busiest men in school for four years and whatever he undertakes is done well. From his "prep" days on up, he has boosted his college at every turn and he will be sorely missed. Yaw is a mighty good friend and a good sport all the time.

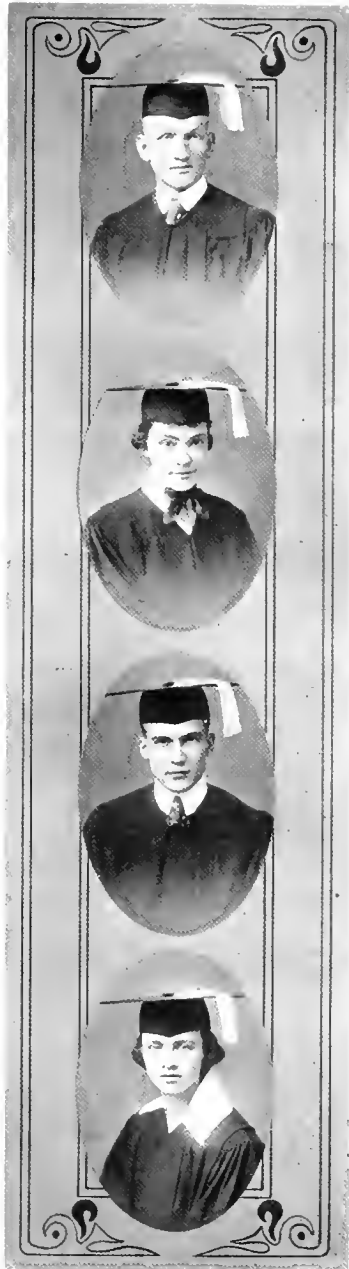

GRACE GROSVENOR MCKEE,

Kindergarten, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Pi Beta Phi; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Kindergarten Club; Glee Club (3, 4); French Club; Secretary Class (1, 2).

A mademoiselle of the sidelong glance type, and tho mild and innocent looking, is apt to lay unsuspected heart traps. So if you are wise, be careful of the maiden with the dreamy eyes.

MARY RUTH GORSUCH, A.B.

Pomeroy, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; German Club (2); Board of Control (4).

Ruth needs no eulogy. We are all aware of her work. She left us a few months ago and we know that people of her school district are realizing her worth as well as we.

BERYL REBECCA MOLER, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Alpha Gamma Delta; Woman's League. Social Chairman; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet; French Club; French Play (3).

There is a warm spot in everybody's heart for Beryl. She is one who thinks, who acts, who knows. She is always ready and willing to do. There is no one who has known or met her, but feels the sterling qualities of her character.

FRED STEWART PICKERING, A.B.

Athens, Ohio

Phi Delta Theta; Y. M. C. A.

Fred has been with us for several years. He has attempted to be a student and business man at the same time and has been successful. He is an ardent supporter of Ohio's Athletics and also quite a singer. Through his knowledge of our athletes he has been quite a help on the Athena Staff.

ELEANOR WARD, B.S. in Ed.

Sandusky, Ohio

Ei Beta Phi; Cresset; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet. General Student Secretary (3-4); Woman's League; Vice-President Advisory Board; Glee Club (2-3); French Club; Home Economics Club, President (2-3); Oyo.

Eleanor is one of those most dependable girls. She is specializing in Domestic Science. Y. W. C. A. work has taken her attention too, and she has done much for this important side of O. U. life.

BLANCHE PHILLIPS, B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

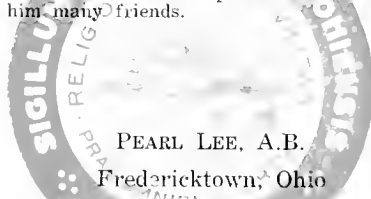

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League.

Another one of our future instructors. Blanche is never swayed by the thot of others for she can see things in the right light herself. She is one who understands the art of making allowances.

WALTER BARNHILL, B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

Walter is an "A" student, and at "Ag" he never grows tired. Married life and college atmosphere have softened his spirit, and have turned him into a hard-working, serious man. His disposition has won for him many friends.

PEARL LEE, A.B.

Fredericktown, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Cresset; Platonian Literary Society, Secretary (4); Woman's League; Advisory Board (3); Biology Club, Secretary (3); Science Club.

Pearl is a regular Biology "shark," as her record shows. She has also found time for other duties, but we expect to hear that next year she will be teaching some of the various "ologies" in which she excels.

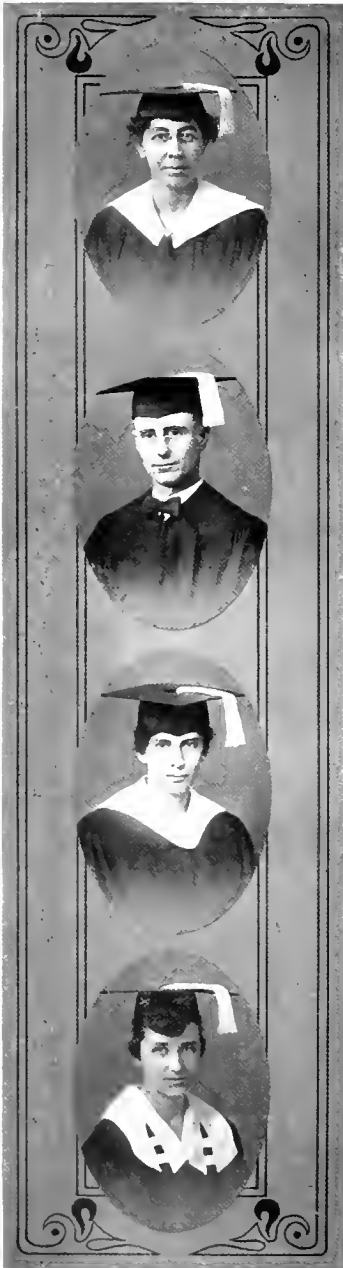

FLORABELLE ROBINSON, B.S. in Ed.

Shinnston, W. Va.

Alouin; Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Home Economics Club.

She is very domestically inclined. We wonder if she doesn't intend to make practical use of her knowledge. She carries our best wishes with her.

SUE J. ROWAN, A.B.

Napoleon, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Oyo; French Club; Woman's League; Chemistry Club.

Sue is rather reserved, so some of us do not know her very well, but there is plenty of good fellowship beneath this dignity, and it is well worth while to make her acquaintance.

HOWARD CLIFTON DRAKE, B.S. in Ed.

Richwood, Ohio

Y. M. C. A.; Platonian.

Always a good student and a hard worker, the cold world will not find him wanting. We foresee in him a most useful citizen.

JESSIE GAY SPELLMAN, B.S. in Ed.

Jeffersonville, Ohio

Aloquin; Cresset; Treasurer Cresset (3-4); Y. W. C. A. Social Secretary (3-4); Y. W. C. A. Cabinet (3-4); Advisory Board (2-3); Home Economics Club.

Jessie believes in getting at the bottom of things. Noted in the class room for having a thorough knowledge of what she is supposed to know. A very conscientious student.

NINA ROWLAND, B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

Woman's League; Y. W. C. A.

Nina's main ambition is to make high grades. She has decided opinions of her own and isn't afraid to express them. One who always sees two sides to every question and is equally capable of taking either side.

FREDERICA KASLER, A.B.

Nelsonville, Ohio

Pi Beta Phi; Woman's League; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

"Freddie" is an adept at many things. Is noted for her strong initiative. Bob says she has the "come hither" in her eyes.

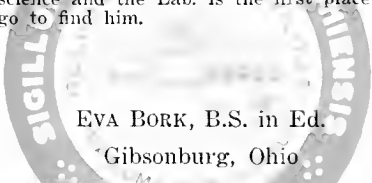

CLARENCE ORTEN CHAPMAN

B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

Lambda Chi Alpha; Torch; Chemical Society; Science Club; Baseball (2, 3, Captain 4); Orchestra; Band.

Chapman is one of those shy, unobtrusive individuals. He never speaks unless he is called upon, but then he usually says something. In chemistry, he excels. He is deeply involved in the mysteries of this science and the Lab. is the first place we go to find him.

EVA BORK, B.S. in Ed.

Gibsonburg, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League.

"Little Eva," a natural born coquette! Always late to meals and classes but generally managed to get to them before the dessert was served and lessons assigned. Who will not miss Eva's original remarks and ready smile?

MELBA WHITE, B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

Aloquin; Cresset; Oyo President (4); Y. W. C. A. Secretary (4); Woman's League; Advisory Board; French Club, Vice-President (4); English Club; Biology Club; Athenian; Glee Club (4).

Melba is the possessor of a sunny smile that flashes upon the slightest provocation. Her dominant characteristic is absolute firmness,—but it is a sweet firmness, and not a displeasing rigidity.

ETHEL MAE DICKSON, B.S. in Ed.
Newark, Ohio

Y. W. C. A. (4); Woman's League (4). Ethel spent her former years at Denison and then decided to try us. We are glad she likes it here for we like her.

"Long may all the short folks live,
Just a little room they take
But a noise in the world they make."

HARLAN CLIFFORD KOCH, A.B.
West Lafayette, Ohio

Lambda Chi Alpha, President (3, 4); Athenian; Tau Kappa Alpha; Intercollegiate Debate (2); Green and White Staff, Editor-in-Chief (4); Science Club (4); Pan-Hellenic, Vice-President (4); Y. M. C. A. Cabinet (3, 4), General Secretary (3); French Club (3); English Club (3, 4); Torch.

In this college life of hurry and bustle, there are a few who really study and get worthy returns for their long hours of patient toil. "Koch" is one of that kind. He already has a good start on life's journey, and we wish him the best of luck the rest of the way.

EULA MAHAN, B.S. in Ed.
Bristolville, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Home Economics Club.

Eula is energetic, ambitious, studious, jolly, and distinctly individual. She is one who understands the art of making allowances.

TREVA STUBBS, B.S. in Ed.
Greenville, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League.

One of Treva's accomplishments is the art of making and keeping friends. A jolly girl whose force of her own merit "makes her way."

OLIVE BLANCHE CRIM, A.B.

Uhrichsville, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League.
 "Olive" has been such a quiet girl that we scarcely know her. She has never caused the matron of Howard any trouble by signing up for library, and then going elsewhere.

RUTH SECREST NICHOLSON

B.S. in Ed.

Buffalo, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Elementary Club (3).

Ruth is very small in stature, but "long" on knowledge. Has a reputation for being a good student.

LEO GAYLORD ROBINSON, A.B.

Marietta, Ohio

Alpha Phi Alpha; Tau Kappa Alpha; French Club; Athena Staff (4); Y. M. C. A.; Intercollegiate Debate (3); Platonian; Biology Club; Revelers; French Play (3); College Play (2); Chemical Society.

He has made an enviable record in debating and track. We congratulate you "Leo" and extend our heartiest good wishes for your future.

LULU CAMILLE GEE, A.B.

Gallipolis, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Philomathean.

"And those about her learn from her all the perfect ways of honor." Her quiet smile containeth no small amount of determination. She'll make good where'er she goes.

BRANDON GROVER, B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

Phi Kappa Tau; Y. M. C. A.; Captain Football (3); Captain Basketball (3); Baseball (3); Torch.

Grover is one of the most popular men in college, as well as one of our biggest athletes. His fame is state-wide and we are mighty glad that O. U. can claim him. From every side one of the finest fellows we have ever met. We wish you all the good fortune, Butch, that you deserve.

MARGARET SMEDLEY ALLEN

B.S. in Ed.

Athens, Ohio

Y. W. C. A.; Woman's League; Home Economics Club.

"She sews, she spins, she weaves,
She twists the threads of life
Most carefully and well,
And keeps her house full neat."

WILLIAM CARLETON HALL, A.B.

Aid, Ohio

Y. M. C. A.

An earnest, thoughtful student. But if you wait for him to tell you of his accomplishments, you'll never hear of them. He is one who is truly regardful of the interests of others.

NOTE: Names of Seniors whose pictures do not appear in this section will be found on page 78.

Athens, Ohio

In the park,
In the dark,
What a lark
He can have.

BERNARD S. BRADBURY

Murray, Ohio

There was a man from Murray,
Was never known to worry.
He came to old O. U.,
And now he worries too.

ELEANOR CHRIST

Buffalo, N. Y.

She talks and talks and talks,
And then she talks some more.
She is always talking, there's no doubt.
But what? I do not know.

EVERETT ROWLES

New Matamoras, Ohio

Everett is tall and rather slim.
But that isn't all there is of him.
Of ideas he has, indeed, quite a few
When it comes to arguing questions new.

RALPH POWELL

Glouster, Ohio

A good looking man with a very wide smile,
A conscientious man is he,
He has been in our midst quite a long while
Working hard for his A. B.

GRACE ELIZABETH BARKER

Ironton, Ohio

In domestic art
Well does Grace her part.
When from O. U. she does depart.
May she have won some man's heart.

HAROLD FREDERICK

Circleville, Ohio

He breakfasts with her in the morning;
He lunches with her at noon;
He dines with her in the evening,
And at night—now what rhymes
with noon?

MARIE RICHTER

Milford Center, Ohio

Oui Oui Marie
She will do this for you and that
for me,
Her name should be Democracy.

J. RICHARD WYMAN

Conneaut, Ohio

He doesn't study in the daytime,
And he doesn't study at night,
But studies at all other times
With all his main and might.

MARY SWETLAND

Belle Center, Ohio

In the Class of '20 there is one
Who always has her work well done.
She has hours for work and
minutes for play,
And never idles her time away.

EARL CARLTON KREIGER

Columbus, Ohio

He loves a bonny lass,
A lass with golden hair,
And when they stroll to class
They make a dandy pair.

ELMA V. DULANEY

Glouster, Ohio

There was a young lady in Ohio-o,
She jumps as high as the sky-o,
When she hears the phone bell
And for some other they yell
Then there's a tear in her eye-o.

EMMETT ROWLES

New Matamoras, Ohio

Boyish, lithe and lively,
This deliver in law.
When he begins to argue
He electrifies his Pa.

GEORGIA DAUTERMAN

Bowling Green, Ohio

Capricious, calm and quiet,
Yet full of merriment too,
Attractive,—who will deny it?
Always dressed in mode quite new.

ENOCH LEE FERGUSON

Moro, Arkansas

There is a young man from Moro,
His heart he gave to Ruth Orr-o,
Tho she makes him sad
And she makes him mad,
He'll probably take her to—Moro.

MADGE ACORD

Kingston, Ohio

With test tube and slide
A bug-germ she spied,
To be a physician
Is her one ambition.

HELEN HUDSON

Plain City, Ohio

She's a bright but modest girl,
Although not in the social whirl,
Social Service she will find
A fitting work for her keen mind.

JOHN GALBREATH

Columbus, Ohio

When at this picture you look
You'll see the editor of this book.
And often with a blond petite
We see him walking up the street.

HELEN SMITH

Mansfield, Ohio

Y. W., Y. W., is her cry
To every one who passes by.
And many successful plans are laid
By Miss Helen Smith, this quiet maid.

RALPH WHITE

Cumberland, Ohio

Gussie is a charmer
With his bright and curly hair,
From Cumberland to Athens
He is that beyond compare.

NELLIE BALL

Wellston, Ohio

This is our own "Nip" Ball,
She's never cross a-tall,
She's sat up many a night
This poetry (?) to write.

VICTOR V. RINEHART

Gnadenhutten, Ohio

I am a studious little lad,
Striving to be just like my dad,
With the other guys I do not mix,
I just wanna run a Super Six.

HOMER MARSHMAN

Columbus, Ohio

There is a chap named Homer,
He is nice and neat.
He surely deserves a diplom-er,
The girls all think he's sweet.

INEZ FRENCH

Napoleon, Ohio

A wonderful girl is Inez
Of talent she's not minus.
And posters she will make
Tho all her time 'twill take.

RUHL JACOB BARTLETT

Jackson Center, Ohio

A man who always is bright,
Who does each job just right.
When he goes to the table
He always is able
To put much food out of sight.

RUTH ORR

Orrville, Ohio

Now why is Ruth Orr
Blue, clean to the core?
Oh! just let her be,
She's thinking of Lee.

B. F. FULKS

Dresden, Ohio

From my Darling Bess
U must confess
Love is what I crave,
Kause she does not save
Smiles that make me brave.

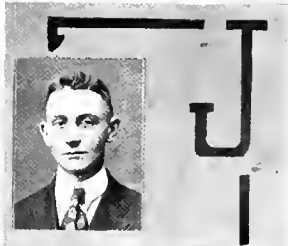

HARRY F. NEWMAN

Logan, Ohio

Newmie is our class president,
Of Logan he's a resident.
The girls all fall for him,
They call him Sunny Jim.

EARL E. KINCAID
Malta, Ohio

This is Kincaid,
His hair ne'er will fade.
Nor do we think
He'll ever shrink.

DOROTHY ELIZA RICHARDSON
Athens, Ohio

Here's Dorothy, so quiet and demure;
As for study, she is sure
To pass with worthiness the mark
That standardizes every shark.

CHARLES A. SUTER
Piedmont, Ohio

A man of worth is he,
Who at Ohio dwells.
On Sunday morn he lies in bed
And heedeth not the bells.

MARY ANTORIETTA
Athens, Ohio

With great speed and ease
She rattles the keys.
Whom good Capt. Plaut
Could not do without.

DUANE FULTON SENFT
Danville, Ohio

He is long, slim and lanky,
About baseball he is cranky.
He is down at the field every night
And always full of fight.

FRED PLUMMER
West Union, Ohio

This little chap named Fred,
Depends upon his head
To guide him straight through life,
And choose the proper wife.

EMILIE RANNELLS

Wilmington, Ohio

I can not check my girlish blush,
My color comes and goes,
I redden even to my ears
And sometimes to my nose.

WALTER J. CAMERON

Uhrichsville, Ohio

With his bright yellow curls
He charms all the girls.
If he has time enough
His professors he'll bluff.

LUCILLE BENNETT

Athens, Ohio

A meek and gentle little maid,
Of work and trouble unafraid.
Her life is quiet, full of sense,
And paradise her recompense.

ROBERT PAUL LOWTHER

Guysville, Ohio

R. P. L., a temperance man is he.
He came back to college
To get some more knowledge
On the subject of Zoology.

HARRY RUPERT JEFFERSON

Parkersburg, W. Va.

I was out when he came in.
To borrow some tin
Was why he came in.
So he was out and I was in.

Inter-Fraternity Council

OFFICERS

President	ARTHUR DUMAREE
Vice-President	HARLAN KOCH
Secretary and Treasurer	RUFUS HOPKINS

The Greek Letter organizations have always been very powerful at Ohio University. They have, however, always neglected to centralize their power and have in some cases failed to direct it along lines which would benefit the organizations or the university. Numerous attempts have been made to establish a central council, but all such endeavours prior to this year have failed. Their failure was due largely to the weakness of the organization and to lack of faculty co-operation.

The lack of a strong inter-fraternity council was especially noticeable this year and steps were taken to create such a body. The result is the present Inter-Fraternity Council of Ohio University. This council is based on solid principles and has the united support of all fraternity men. The faculty is heartily in sympathy with such a movement. An organization with such worthy motives and so much power can and will perform a great work at old Ohio.

Torch

OFFICERS

President	ROBERT BONE
Vice-President	BRANDON GROVER
Secretary and Treasurer	C. O. CHAPMAN

Torch was organized in the Spring of 1913 as an honorary society for men. Its purpose was to stimulate the interest of the male students in all college activities. To be elected to Torch the man must be a good student and take an active part in athletic and general university activities. The organization of Torch with its requirements for membership has had a very good effect. It has met with success and is a commendable stimulus to students to become more active in college activities. Members are elected by the active members from the Junior and Senior classes after the eligible men have been given careful consideration. This year Torch has but eight members, all of whom will graduate with the class of 1919.

PHI DELTA THETA

*Sing the praise, yes loud the praise,
 The glory and the honor of the Phis,
 At Miami long ago
 Our fame began to grow
 'Til now its glory reaches to the sky.
 Phi Delta Theta,
 Voices strong in the song respond
 All loyal brothers, we are true to the bond,
 Phi Delta Theta,
 All our days we shall praise thy name,
 Shout the Rah, Rah, Rah,
 Yell the Phi—Kai—a
 For Phi Delta Theta.*

Cressett

OFFICERS

President	ETHEL MOORE
Vice-President	EDITH STOCKLIN
Secretary and Treasurer	JESSIE SPELLMAN

Cressett, an honorary organization for the women of Ohio University, was organized in May of 1913, with the purpose of setting a standard of scholarship and leadership among the undergraduate students, the attainment of which should receive recognition.

Every four-year student in Ohio University is eligible provided her scholastic work shall attain a certain standard, not in any measure beyond the capabilities of a good, thorough and sincere student. Her campus activities shall be consistent and well balanced. Membership in Y. W. C. A. is necessary and membership in a Literary Society is desirable.

Cressett recognizes no organization limits, making all elections on a strictly democratic basis of scholarship and leadership. Back of real leadership may be recognized courage of one's convictions, honor in the classroom and on the campus, sincerity of purpose, consistency of development, enthusiasm, responsibility, tact and simplicity.

Members are elected from the Junior and Senior classes, with an occasional Sophomore. Juniors and Sophomores are not elected before the spring of each year. Seniors may be elected at the close of the first semester.

The Woman's Pan-Hellenic Council

OFFICERS

President MARZUELA RICHARDS
 Secretary and Treasurer JENNETTE COEN

The Woman's Pan-Hellenic Council of Ohio University was organized for the purpose of maintaining on a high plane, fraternity life and inter-fraternity relationship; co-operating with college authorities in their efforts to maintain high social and scholastic standards throught the college; acting as forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the college and the fraternity world.

The membership of the council consists of two active members and one alumna from each of the National Women's Greek Letter organizations at Ohio University. The Dean of Women is a member of the Council in an advisory capacity.

Meetings are held quarterly during the school year.

The Young Men's Christian Association

AT OHIO UNIVERSITY

Many opportunities for real service are open to a Young Men's Christian Association on a college campus. As the educational and physical development of the men is well provided for by the college itself the activities of the Association are almost entirely of a religious or service nature. Although not all the opportunities offered in this realm have been developed, nevertheless the Ohio Association is doing some excellent work and is making sure strides in the direction of the ideal.

Contributions to the social life of the college are made through general receptions early in the year for men alone, and men and women together, and through smaller group parties. An employment bureau is maintained in order to relate students, who need to earn money to aid them in meeting their college expenses, to the jobs to be had. A reading room for the men is also maintained upon the campus.

The Association through these various activities enlists a large proportion of the men of the student body in its work. It is the great aim of the Ohio Association to enlist every man in college in some form of Christian service or spiritual activity.

Young Women's Christian Association

OF OHIO UNIVERSITY

In the fall, when there is such a host of new girls, the social aim of the Association is most in evidence. The problem of helping over two hundred new girls to find themselves a contented part of a strange college environment is not an easy task. Then one of the biggest aims comes to the fore-front,—that of true friendliness and unselfish friendship. For this end there are parties and receptions, but these after all are but superficial means through which we hope to promote a genial companionship, which is the only foundation for real college democracy.

But after these first days have passed another aim comes into greater prominence. There exists in every girl a deep religious sense that the rush of college life is apt to deaden. Here is our second problem. How can the great Christian ideals of living be kept before us in the midst of so much that seems selfish and little in college life? If the Y. W. C. A. is not training girls to go from college with an overwhelming desire to serve their community in its social and religious life, then it has failed to accomplish its greatest mission. It should be one of the best means in college of training girls for leadership, for if a girl has become the best type of Association worker, she is a good executive, a keen judge of people, and an enthusiast in constructive work. She is just the kind of person for which the church is looking, and her devotional life has grown so that she herself feels the need of the church.

In the fall of 1913 under the supervision of Irma E. Voigt, Dean of Women, the Woman's League of Ohio University was formed. The organization is similar to those existing in most of the leading universities of the country, and was formed to bring the girls more closely together and to foster the "big sister" attitude of the upper class girls toward those of the lower classes.

During the first year of the league's existence its biggest events were the May Pole dance and the Skit Show. At the close of the second year a pageant was given for which the league raised three-fourths of the money required to finance it. In February, 1918, the league "put across" one of its biggest undertakings, the Red Cross Fair, by which $500.00 was raised for the Red Cross Fund.

The monthly parties held in the gymnasium and the Skit Show given every spring by the league have become established events in the university calendar. With the money made by the Skit Shows, a Loan Fund has been established which has proven to be a help to many students. "The Passing Show" of this year marks a crowning success in the skit show performances.

Skit Show

Among the annual events on the campus, looked forward to by both students and town people, is the Girls' Skit Show. With the 1919 performance on March 27, the Woman's League of Ohio University has put across six, each better than the preceding, in the words of our dramatic critic. The event serves a double purpose, namely, that of an annual frolic and, more essentially, that of a source of material income to the League Loan Fund. In fact, the Skit Show is the only regular source of income for the fund.

During the first four years a program consisting, entirely, of original skits was given. During the last two years the musical revue feature has been added, not, however, to the exclusion of originality.

The Skit Show has become traditional enough, already, to cause many friends of the girls to plan visits to Ohio University at the time of its production.

English Club

OFFICERS

President DEAN CHUBB
 Secretary GRACE BARKER

English Club has the distinction of being the oldest club of Ohio University. Before 1900 it was known as the "Columbiad," but since that time its title has been English Club. Its membership is limited to about fifteen in number and is made up of students of the Department of English who are selected because of especial aptitude displayed in work of that department. The purpose of the club is to develop originality in composition, and the programs of the meetings are devoted to the presentation of original poems and short stories by the members. Meetings are held on the first Tuesday of each month.

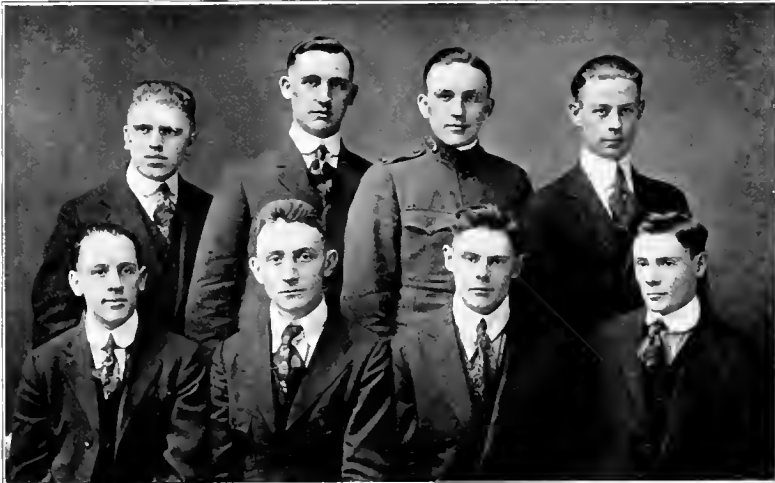

The Senate

OFFICERS

President EVERETT ROWLES
 Secretary and Treasurer FRED PLUMMER

The Senate, a men's literary society, was organized in January, 1915. It is managed in a different way from the other literary organizations in that it only meets twice a month and the rules governing the conduct of its members and its work are more rigorous. Its work is of a more serious nature than that of other literary societies. The membership is limited to upper classmen.

Philomathean

OFFICERS

President	MARY VICKERS
Vice-President	FLOLA SHEPHERD
Secretary	EDITH PORTER
Treasurer	FLORA MCGEE

In January, 1821, fourteen students met in room five of Central Building and organized the Philomathean Literary Society for the purpose of advancing the literary merit of the college. The name means "lovers of learning." The following motto was chosen: "Meleta to Pan,"—Diligence is Everything. In the early history of the society, we find that the meetings were held at seven o'clock on Saturday mornings. Many of Ohio's most illustrious alumni were members of the organization.

Athenian

OFFICERS

Athenian Literary Society claims the distinction of being the first Literary Society founded west of the Alleghenies. It was founded in 1819 and incorporated in 1837. The purpose was to promote social and moral improvement and cultivate literary ability. In going down the pages of history we find that Athenian has played an important part in the literary work at Ohio University.

All societies have worked under difficulties this year. Athenian has come out of the fray with a strong society which shows marked ability. A bright future is certainly in store.

Platonian

OFFICERS

President	JULIAN ARCHER
Vice-President	FRED PLUMMER
Secretary	PEARL LEE
Treasurer	MADGE ACORD

The Platonian Literary Society, a union of the older Chrestomathian and Adelpian Societies, was organized in March 1918. The amalgamation was effected because of the decrease in membership of the old societies, due to the war. This society strives to uphold the ideals set forth by its parent societies, and it promises to be one of the best organizations of its kind on the campus.

The Art Club

OFFICERS

President ANNA ROWAN
 Vice-President MARGARET FRENCH
 Secretary and Treasurer ISABELLE SHORE

The Art Club of Ohio University was organized in 1914 for the study of current art news; art history; artists and masterpieces, both ancient and modern; architecture; arts and crafts.

Membership is drawn from those making art work a specialty, and showing special talent in this work. There is a limit of twenty members; so that intensive study is possible.

The Booklovers' Club

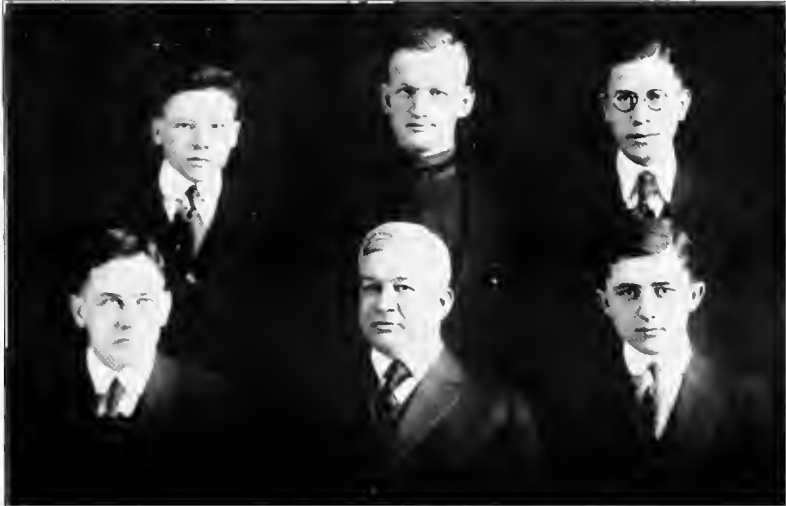

OFFICERS

President	JULIAN ARCHER
Vice-President	HOWARD BOBO
Secretary and Treasurer	HERBERT TODD

The Booklovers' Club was organized in the fall of 1911 under the direct supervision of Dr. Wilson, professor of English in the Normal College. The charter members were Dr. H. R. Wilson, J. H. Comstock, H. O. Tidd, T. W. Ward, H. H. McLaughlin, C. E. Skinner, S. O. Welday and W. R. Blumenthal. The purpose of the Club is to promote the critical study of subjects of a literary and philosophical nature, and as far as possible to encourage original literary investigation.

The year's work usually centers around some writer or group of note. In 1916-17, for example, the Club dealt with the drama of the Elizabethan period with emphasis on Shakspeare. In 1917-18 Carlyle was chosen as a representative type of writer. This year is being devoted to Ruskin.

The Club is limited in number to sixteen; any male student of collegiate rank is eligible to membership.

Oyo

OFFICERS

President MARIE RICHTER
 Secretary and Treasurer EDITH PORTER

Oyo Literary Society was founded under the auspices of Cresset in 1915. It is an honorary literary organization formed to promote higher literary ideals among the girls of Ohio University. Membership in Oyo is gained thru a tryout before a committee of five members of the faculty of Ohio University representing the departments of English, Oratory and Music. Any girl may feel honored by having her name enrolled in the membership of Oyo, and any girl of the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes is eligible to the tryouts which are held in the Fall and Spring of each year.

Formerly only girls who were members of other Literary Societies on the Campus were eligible for membership in Oyo, but this restriction was removed in 1917, and any girl in the upper classes may now tryout. The tryouts as a result of this decision are bringing Oyo a greater number of members of exceptional ability and spirit. For the first time the membership limit of thirty is reached. Over half of this number are Seniors. Since 1917 the regular meetings of Oyo have been held at the home of Dean Voigt.

Oyo stands for the highest and best in College life, and for abroad understanding of woman's place in the world about her in which she must soon find herself.

The Board of Control

OFFICERS

President	MARIE RICHTER
Vice-President	JAMES BECK
Secretary-Treasurer	PAUL ANDREWS

The students of Ohio University, in order to promote greater unity in college life, and give Ohio University an official publication that would insure equal representation at home, and place Ohio in its just position among the institutions of the State, organized the Board of Control. This Board consists of seven members, elected from the student body of the University. It governs the affairs of the college publication, the "Green and White." Those elected to this board must have attained their sophomore year in college. Until May 5, 1917, the affairs of the official college paper were handled in a loose manner, and to make it more business-like, the above body was organized.

The members of the Board hold their meetings upon the first and third week of each month in order to comment upon the work of the editor and his staff.

The members of the present Board of Control are: Marie Richter, Chairman; Paul J. Andrew, Secretary; Misses Marjorie Hegel and Mary Buchanan and Messrs. James Beck, William Leeper and Harry Newman.

Newman Club

OFFICERS

President	MARY ANTORIETTO
Vice-President	IRENE DEVLIN
Secretary	MARY GOLDCAMP

The Newman Club was organized at Ohio University in March, 1916, as a chapter of the Newman Club of Ohio State University, where it is one of the largest organizations on the campus. It was named in honor of Cardinal Newman, the noted English convert and scholar, and was organized for the purpose of bringing together the Catholic students of the school.

Cercle Francais

OFFICERS

President	FLOLA SHEPHERD
Vice-President	NAOMI CALDWELL
Secretary-Treasurer	PATIENCE LEONARD

The Cercle Francais is composed of about forty members of the French department who have successfully completed the first year course. The purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in the study of the French language, literature, and life. The club meets on the last Tuesday of each month and on these occasions French is the only language used whether in business or pleasure.

On January 13, the Club presented Maeterlinck's "Interieur" and Anatole France's "Man Who Married a Dumb Wife." On February 25 a performance of "Hernani" was given.

The Cercle Francais brought an excellent concert course here this year, the success of which undertaking made it possible for the Club both to have better costumes for their dramatic productions and also to do a little philanthropic work besides.

Home Economics Club

OFFICERS

President	PATIENCE LEONARD
Vice-President	EVA DOUGAN
Secretary-Treasurer	IVA SWINEHART

The Home Economics Club came into existence in the early days of the Home Economics Department of Ohio University. It was organized for the purpose of keeping its members informed of the present day accomplishments and tendencies in the large and rapidly growing field of Home Economics.

Membership is limited to those pursuing one of the courses in the Home Economics Department, and whose standing in this and other departments of the college has attained a high plane.

The club contributes to the "Ellen H. Richards Memorial Fund," a Home Economics Scholarship carried by the University of Chicago; prepares and serves food for special occasions where assistance of this sort is needed; canvasses the city, under the direction of the city nurse, and assists needy families. It has been very active in War Relief Work.

Kindergarden Club

OFFICERS

President	FLORENCE CARR
Vice-President	MARY McNAUGHTEN
Secretary	KATHRYN E. DILCHER
Treasurer	HELEN BELLE ROBERTS
Instructor	CONSTANCE McLEOD

The Kindergarden Club was organized in 1910 for the purpose of bringing the girls of that Department into a closer relationship with the Kindergarden and its work. The meetings of the club, which are held monthly, are devoted to discussions of child problems and interests. One meeting a year is reserved as a guest-meeting, when college students may witness the games, songs and rhythms employed in the Kindergarden classes.

In 1917 the girls of the club, assisted by the Mother's association, gave a "Fair," and bought a Victrola with the proceeds, for use in the department.

This year the girls have arranged to pay the tuition of one of the children.

JOHN W. GALBREATH
Business Manager

In presenting this volume of ATHENA, the editors have had much difficulty in compiling the material necessary for its publication due to the disturbed state of affairs about the college since the War began. We hope, however, that the book will meet with your approval, and in future years will serve to recall happy days spent at Ohio University.

A feature of this issue is the Sepia Art Section, for the planning and arranging of which Manager Galbreath is responsible. This is something new in an ATHENA.

The department headings and art work were done by the art editors and members of the Art School. Much credit is due them, and they have our appreciation and gratitude.

Too much credit can not be given the members of the Staff and other individuals who have helped wonderfully by their faithful efforts.

We hope that the ATHENA readers will find as much information and enjoyment in pursuing these pages as we have found in compiling them.

JOHN M. WILLIAMS, Editor-in-Chief

In reviewing the problems and difficulties which the manager of a college annual meets in the course of his duties, it is impossible to close a volume without a note of appreciation to those upon whom he has to depend.

For the Champlin Printing Company, of Columbus, Ohio, it is almost impossible to express sufficient gratitude and commendation, for the prompt, efficient and willing co-operation which they have at all times given, in matters of planning, of arranging, and of detail. Without their assistance whatever success the 1919 ATHENA may gain would have been impossible. It has been a pleasure to work with them.

The Bucher Engraving Company, of Columbus, Ohio, deserves credit for the excellence of the engravings, and for many of the designs.

The photographers, Mr. Moore and Mr. Wise, have worked faithfully and well, and it is their art and untiring efforts that have produced photographs that made good plates.

The advertisers who have so generously paid for space, the manager wishes to thank deeply. A complete list of advertisers is furnished in this volume, with the hope that students will be able to see at a glance those merchants who co-operate with them. We have told these advertisers that the students will patronize them. Will you do it?

The Students Army Training Corps

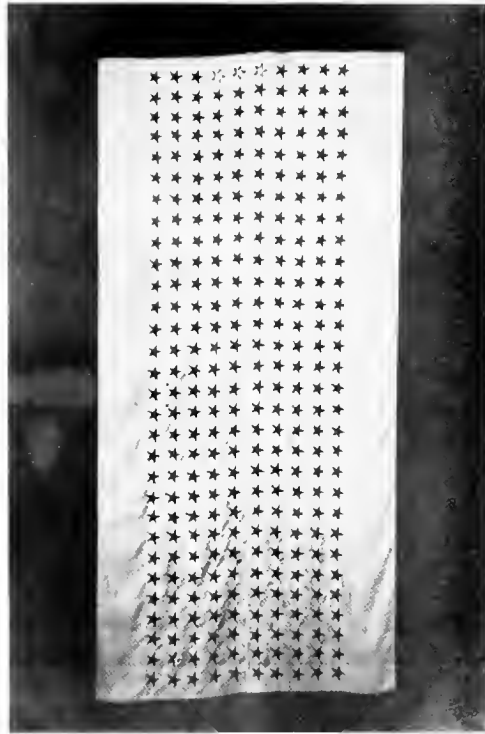

It seemed like a brilliant conception, this idea of the S. A. T. C. In all sincerity, the plan was worthy of a great intellect. The colleges, depleted by the withdrawal of their gallant boys who had wholeheartedly given themselves to their country, needed students, and the government needed trained men as officers.

In short, this was the government's generous plan: Establish training camps at several hundreds of colleges; let the students be sworn in as soldiers; as a part of the army, they will receive the pay of a regular soldier; in addition their tuition and board are to be paid. In return they are to take a prescribed course of study and military drill as a preparation for an officers' training camp.

The undertaking was colossal, its very immensity carried with it difficulties too great for an immediate harmonious adjustment. The one general complaint, here and there, was that the pomp and circumstance of war dwarfed, obscured and almost obliterated that modest flower known as the academic spirit.

But be that as it may, it was a stirring time. The experience is not to be regretted. The boys had a taste of army life, and the professors had a taste of military autocracy. It was worth much to see our S. A. T. C. and our S. N. T. C., for we had a naval unit also, as they marched to the parade ground. What a fine sight it was! No, they didn't "go across," but they were ready to go; they were ready to sacrifice all for their country; honor to them and their willingness to serve! We shall never forget the S. A. T. C. and S. N. T. C.

EDITOR'S NOTE: When the above photograph was taken only half of the stars had been placed on the flag. We regret that scarcity of time would not permit us to wait until the flag was completed before having this engraving made.

Students at Fort Sheridan, Illinois

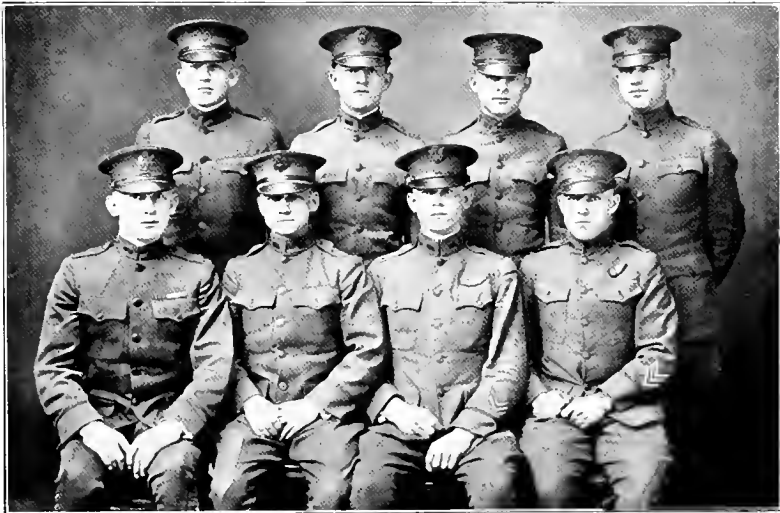

On July 16, 1918, fifteen students of Ohio University were given appointments to attend the 60 day training camp at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Their names and addresses are given herewith:

Joseph Newland Basom, Athens, Ohio
J. Fremont Bateman, Piketon, Ohio
Warren French Clements, Atlanta, Ohio
Byron Danford, Athens, Ohio
Francis Edgar Fuller, Columbus, Ohio
John Wilmer Galbreath, Columbus, Ohio
Joseph Harold Geisecke, Athens, Ohio
John Forsythe Glandon, Sciotoville, Ohio
Henry Wheatley Link, Athens, Ohio
Joseph Adams Morrison, Athens, Ohio
Earl Franklin Shadrach, Jackson, Ohio
Clark Emerson Williams, Athens, Ohio
John Michael Williams, Jacksonville, Ohio
Charles Lloyd Woodworth, Athens, Ohio
John O'Neal Zeigler, Roseville, Ohio

Out of this number J. Fremont Bateman, John Wilmer Galbreath, Earl Franklin Shadrach, Clark Emerson Williams and John Michael Williams received commissions from Fort Sheridan and were sent to different army camps for duty.

OVER THE TOP

FATIGUE DUTY

The title 'In Memoriam' is rendered in a highly decorative, blackletter-style font. The letter 'I' is particularly large and ornate, with intricate flourishes. The word 'Memoriam' follows in a similar but slightly smaller font. A single feather is positioned horizontally behind the letters 'M' and 'e', extending to the right.

It is with a deep feeling of grief, mingled with pride, that we present the following memorials of those of Ohio's sons who have fallen in the great cause of Democracy. We have known and loved them, and some of them have been the dearest friends we have known, and there must always be a void in our life in the place which they filled. But it is not for us to grieve for them, for we cannot help feeling that they achieved a real victory and that it was a high privilege to give as they gave—their all for the ideals for which their country stood. It is rather for us to bighly resolve to carry forward the banner of the standards and ideals which their lives represent, and for which they died.

OTHO B. CONOWAY

Otho B. Conoway was born September 29, 1894, and died March 31, 1918. All who knew him agreed that his life was one of wonderful promise. His activity in student life in Ohio was remarkable, for he was able to take care of the work of General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and the free employment bureau in connection with it, to assume the pastoral duties of two churches near Athens, and to play an active part in all the affairs of student life. He was a member of the Revelers and of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. On November 29, 1918, he was united in marriage with Miss Freda Yanit, an alumnus of Ohio. He was planning to devote his life to mission service on the foreign field. He enlisted in the navy in December, 1918, and died of pneumonia a few months later at the Great Lakes Training Station.

THERON WARD

Theron Ward was born at Cheshire, Ohio, Gallia County. He graduated from Ohio University in 1915, with the two degrees of A.B. and B.S. in Ed. He taught school at Berea, Ohio, for a while, and was engaged in teaching at Mansfield when he entered the service of his country. He was eager to get into the fight, and realized keenly the issues at stake. During his training at Camp Sherman, he contracted ptomaine poisoning and died after an illness of five days. He was active in Y. M. C. A. work on the campus, and was a member of the honorary fraternity of Torch, was a member of Phi Kappa Tau, and held a prominent place in the Athenian Literary Society. He was a man of absolute sincerity and a son of whom Ohio might well be proud.

GEORGE SHERMAN

George Sherman was born April 1, at Carbondale, Ohio. He graduated from Athens High School and from Ohio University with a B.S. degree. He was a brilliant student and was known over the entire state as an athlete, being equally proficient in baseball, basketball, and football. He was a member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. After his graduation, he was associated with his father in the coal business near Hobson. After enlisting, he was made first lieutenant in the field artillery service at Fort Benjamin Harrison, and after a period of work as instructor at Camp Custer, he was sent to Fort Sill to attend the aerial observers school, and it was here that he met with the accident that caused his death. He was known as a splendid young man and was popular with all his associates in college, business, and in military life.

WENDELL S. WATKINS

A death that was greatly lamented by the entire school was that of Wendell Watkins, affectionately known as "Bunny" to his friends. He entered Ohio University in 1913. After spending three years here, he left school for a year and taught school at Circle Hill, after which he again entered the University. He joined the S. A. T. C., and while playing on the varsity football team in the initial game of the season, sustained the injury of a broken neck, and died a few hours later at Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus. He was a leader in athletics, and had won his letter in the three major sports. He was a very efficient student, a member of Torch, Ohio's honorary society, and a prominent member of the Sigma Pi fraternity. He was known and respected as one of the cleanest men on the campus. He had a distinct and worthy set of standards and ideals, and lived up to them. Ohio would have felt the loss of few men more.

DARRALL STRATTON

Darrall M. Stratton was the first Ohio man to give his life in the world struggle for freedom. He entered Ohio in the fall of 1915. In the spring of 1916, he left college and enlisted with the Canadian forces, in the famous Princess Pat regiment. After several months of strenuous training, they were sent to the front. A number of reports have come back to his friends as to the bravery of Stratton in action. He was wounded twice but returned to duty each time upon recovery. The third time he was fatally wounded. His body lies in France today, a memorial to his and America's part and sympathy in the fight, even before the nation officially entered. He was a member of the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity.

GARRETT C. ENLOW

Garrett C. Enlow was born at Athens, Ohio, March 28, 1897. He completed his work in Athens High School in the spring of 1915, and entered Ohio University in the next autumn. He was soon a favorite on the campus. Ill health, however, caused his attendance to be irregular, and in the spring of 1918 he went west, hoping to regain his strength. By September, he was much stronger, and was accepted for service. He was sent to Camp Sherman to take his place as a soldier of the nation. His strength was not sufficient, however, to withstand the vigorous camp life, and he fell a victim to the epidemic then sweeping the country just a month after entering camp. He died October 5, 1918, at the Base Hospital, Camp Sherman. With these others, he is enrolled among the heroes of the world. He gave, as they did, with a full measure of devotion.

Aim of Athletics at Ohio University

Interest in physical development, bodily vigor and dexterity, and in athletic contests is as natural in a normal youth as an interest in things purely intellectual. The instinct for play is as wholesome as the instinct for knowledge. The man who never plays is as much a "half-man" as the man who never works. With these ideas in view all forms of athletics and gymnasium work are judiciously encouraged at Ohio University.

The teams are composed of genuine students who are encouraged to cultivate the manly virtues of a true sportsman. Ohio University wins its share of games, but it feels that more important than the winning of games is the development of the spirit of justice, fairness, self-control, and the dogged determination to do one's best even in defeat.

COACH FRANK B. GULLUM

Ohio University was fortunate last fall in securing the services of Frank B. Gullum as Coach of Athletics. Coach Gullum came to Ohio University from East High School in Columbus, where he had coached championship teams in all sports. He is a graduate of Ohio University and while here was one of the best ball players ever seen in an Ohio uniform. His knowledge of athletics and his high ideals of true, clean sportsmanship will go far toward placing Ohio University high in Ohio Conference athletics.

Hospital, Denison and Marietta. The battle with Cincinnati resulted in a 6 to 6 tie, yet on Thanksgiving day, Cincy held Miami, the Ohio Conference champions, to a 0 to 0 score.

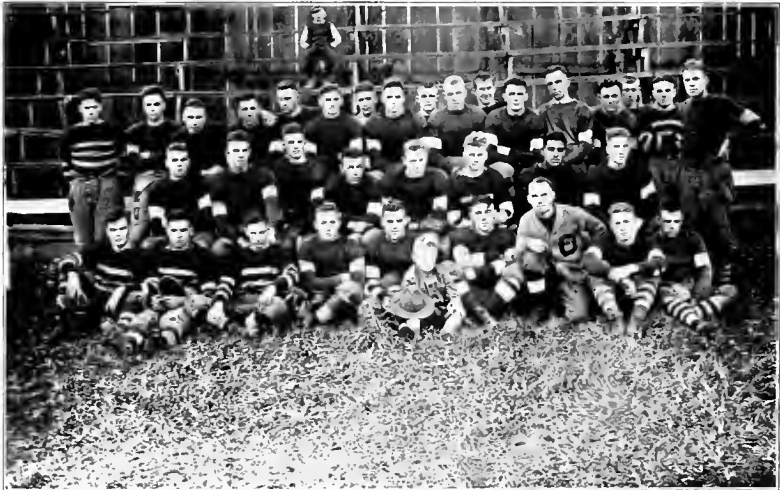

Last September Coach Frank B. Gullum took things into his own hands, put in his system, and went to work to put Ohio again on the Ohio Conference map. Old regulars were few, but new material was plentiful. With this Coach brought forth a finished fighting machine.

The schedule called for some of the hardest games, and it required the men to be in as good form at the beginning as on Thanksgiving day. Gullum proved equal to the occasion with the team in excellent trim at all times.

Five games only were played as the "Flu" ban caused the cancellation of half of the previously arranged schedule. Four of these were victories, by decisive scores, over Ohio State Freshmen, Camp Sherman Base

CAPTAIN EARL KREIGER

POPE

Pope hails from Wellston and was the last word in football in the High School of that town. He entered the University last fall and the first thing he did after matriculating was to don a uniform and report for practice. He was not the fastest man on the team but he hit the line low and hard and could be depended on for consistent gaining. When the suits are handed out next fall, we hope that he will be back in the line-up again.

TRONE

"Bill" Trone, captain-elect of the Ohio football machine of 1919, has made a name for himself at snagging passes. On the flank of the left side of the line, it was a tough proposition to get around his end. His favorite pastime was to spoil the well-laid schemes of the enemy. He has proven himself one of the most dependable players on the team.

GROVER

"Butch" has played his last game for Ohio. In breaking up end runs, running down punts, and in taking in passes, "Butch" is one of the cleverest ends we have ever seen perform. Many sporting writers gave to him an end position on the All-State team. "Butch" has earned letters in football, basketball and baseball, and Ohio is going to miss him next year.

KNAUER

Knauer began to play football at Sidney where he was one of the best football men in the city. He was the pivot of Ohio's tried and proved line, and as a snapper-back was very good.

DAVIS

"Davy" was the smallest, nerviest, and fastest open field runner on the team. He was one of the small men, but in stature only. His steadiness and generalship helped much to put over a winning team. On the squad there was not a safer man at handling forward passes, at laying back for punts, or at tackling. He has two more seasons to play, and will show us more of his speed.

JEFFERSON

"Jeff" came to Ohio last fall from West Virginia Collegiate Institute where he had made an enviable record. On the line he is a tower of strength and it did not take long for opposing teams to learn that it was useless to run plays through that part of the line. Although big in stature he was among the fastest on the squad and was generally down after the kick-off. "Jeff" has attracted the attention of the sport writers higher-up and next year he will be in the All-State choice.

NEWMAN

"Newmy" possessed the qualities of being fairly fast, and full of pep and grit. He was somewhat handicapped in the early season games by a lame knee. He was shifted from quarter to end and end to quarter, and delivered the goods in each instance. "Newmy" was a game fighter, and always played at his best and hardest.

SHAPTER

Shapter came from Columbus, where he had been playing in the backfield. His great size attracted the attention of the coach who shifted him to the right tackle position. He soon proved his worth and made most of the opposing linesmen look up and beware.

OVERLY

"Liz" was always ready to step into the game and play to the last minute. He was a good worker and a good tackler. "Liz" was one of those members of the squad that was noted for his humor and continued flow of pep. "Liz" was the utility man of the backfield and could be counted on to do his share.

FERGUSON

Known among the boys as "Fergie." He was a hard and willing worker all the time. Although not a brilliant player he could always be depended on to do his share. It will be hard to fill the shoes of "Fergie," as he was called home shortly after the season closed and will not likely be able to return.

FULLER

"Peg" at halfback was one of the most valuable men in advancing the ball and was always on the spot to interrupt the progress of any opponent around his side of the line. Fast and active on his feet, he was a good open field runner. "Peg" has three more years to play and will make a name for himself before it is time to quit the college game.

WADE

To Wade goes much credit and praise. What football he knows was taught him at the University. He readily learned the game and formed a liking for it. One thing he dislikes is being pushed out of the way, as opposing players have learned to their discomfiture. "Jim" is very particular as to whom he allows to pass through his own sphere of influence. Aside from these facts he likes to get through and stop the enemy's advance.

CAPTAIN HARRY NEWMAN

Basketball Review

Basketball, this past season, would seem the major sport at Ohio University. This year's record is a fitting climax to the efforts of every man on the team. Finally, this year, after several years of mediocrity, Ohio had one of the best teams in the Ohio Conference.

One having watched the results of our Conference games this year will have to admit that we were very unfortunate in the outcome of our close games. Just when we were about to win a hard-earned victory over Wesleyan, Grover was injured and taken out of the game. Such an accident as this in the midst of a close game is bound to hurt the team, and it did keep the boys from winning by one point. The team sent to Wittenberg suffered a similar defeat by losing the services of King, who was taken from the game as a result of an injury to his shoulder received in scrimmage. We feel, however, that Ohio has done credit to herself in the season just over and with the return of King, Davis, Newman, Stockdale and Trone next year, we are expecting to retaliate to the extent of an Ohio Conference Championship.

Much credit should be given the Freshmen squad who furnished scrimmage for the varsity throughout the season and with the return of every man from this squad next year, Coach Gullum should have no trouble in picking a champion team.

ATHENA

Captain Newman was one of the best guards in the state this year. He played a fast and snappy game, always putting lots of pep in his men. He deserves much credit for the good team which represented Ohio the past season.

KING

King played through the season after having received an injury at Wittenberg. This handicapped him for a short while but he played a stellar game at forward all the time. King possessed the ability to throw a basket almost at will from any reasonable distance. We expect great things from him next year and know that we will not be disappointed.

TRONE

Trone was one of the most dependable men in an Ohio uniform this year. With his ability to play either forward or center he added much strength to the team. He is fast, tall, and a good goal shooter. Sickness at the beginning of the season kept him from getting into the best of condition. "Bill" will appear next year for his last time.

STOCKDALE

"Stocky" is one of the most consistent guards Ohio has boasted of in a long time. Any opposing forward will heartily agree with us on this score. This is his first year in an Ohio uniform and he is certainly making good. The team has honored him with next year's Captaincy.

ATHENA

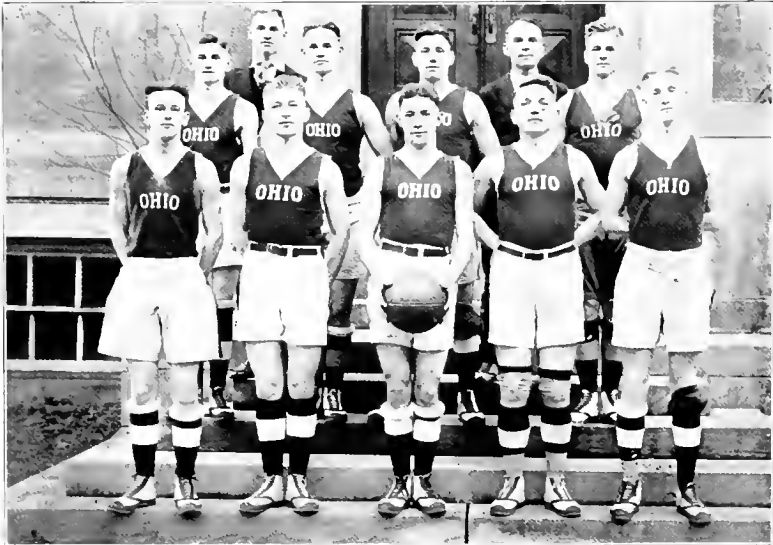

GROVER

Grover possessed all of the qualities of a good center. Too much credit can not be given this Athens boy for his interest in Ohio athletics. "Butch" enters every game with the determination to give the team the best he has in him. The team felt his absence when he was injured in the Wesleyan game.

DAVIS

Davis has the honor and distinction of scoring more points during the season than any other man on the team. "Davy" always played a cool, steady and heady game. He is a very accurate goal thrower. Davis like King has just finished the first year of his varsity career and his outlook for the future is very bright.

ATHENA

CAPTAIN WENDELL WATKINS

Baseball Review

"Step into them," "Loosen that arm up," "Put a little snap into it," echoed and re-echoed over the Athletic Field. Coach Banks, standing at one side, was coolly sizing up each man as he came to bat. This period of trial for us was not of long duration. The knife soon fell and we found that our representatives on the diamond were Captain Watkins, starring on third; "Gus" White, covering short; and "Butch" Grover romping over the initial sack. "Newmy" was elected shoestring catcher, Wyman aeroplaning for flies in the middle garden and Krieger flagging them at second. Chapman had no opposition in getting the box and keeping it the year through.

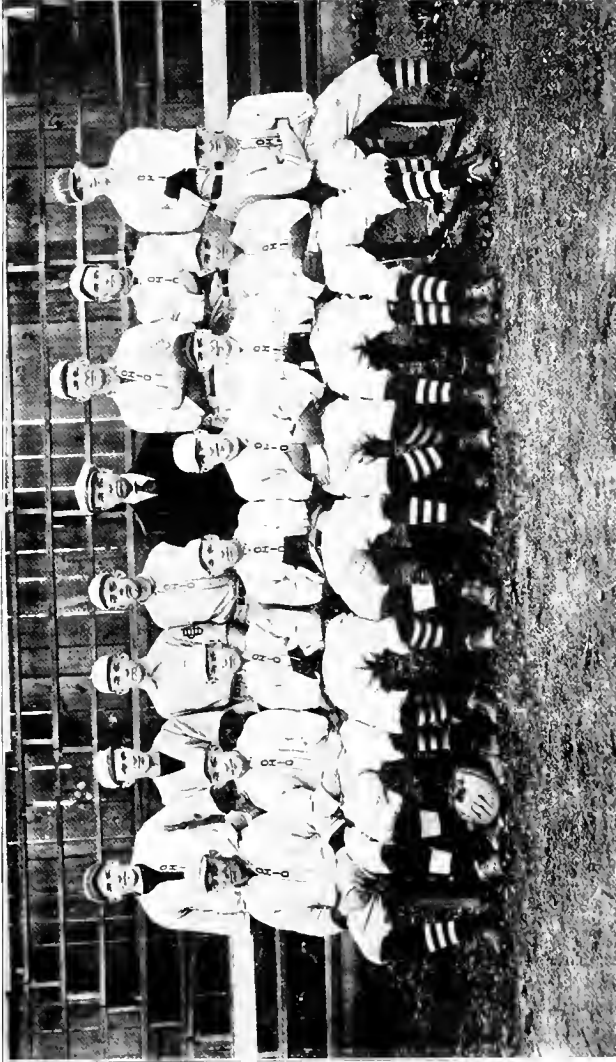

After a hard season of preparation our team played wonderful ball, defeating Ohio Wesleyan twice; Denison by a shut-out 3 to 0; and the strong Camp Sherman team 5-4. Marietta and Wittenberg also fell victims by the scores of 6 to 2 and 11 to 4 respectively.

Ohio was supreme in the pinches. Any one having seen the Camp Sherman game will heartily agree to this. In the ninth inning with Camp Sherman having a three run lead, Ohio warriors poled out five straight two-baggers and placed Ohio in the lead. While we do not believe in alibis, we are confident that ground conditions kept us from winning at Denison, the only game we lost all year and that by a one run margin. This is evident, as we shut them out when they played here.

The baseball season for Ohio was a tremendous success and we are fortunate in having the entire personnel of the team for this year's line-up with the exception of Captain Watkins. With Stockdale on first, White on second, King on short and Grover at third we do not believe there is any team in the whole state that will have an infield that can compare with us. With the return of Hendrickson, who was possibly the best varsity pitcher Ohio has ever had, we expect a great deal out of the pitching staff. Everything points to a second Ohio Conference Championship team.

1919 Outlook

CLARENCE CHAPMAN, CAPTAIN 1919

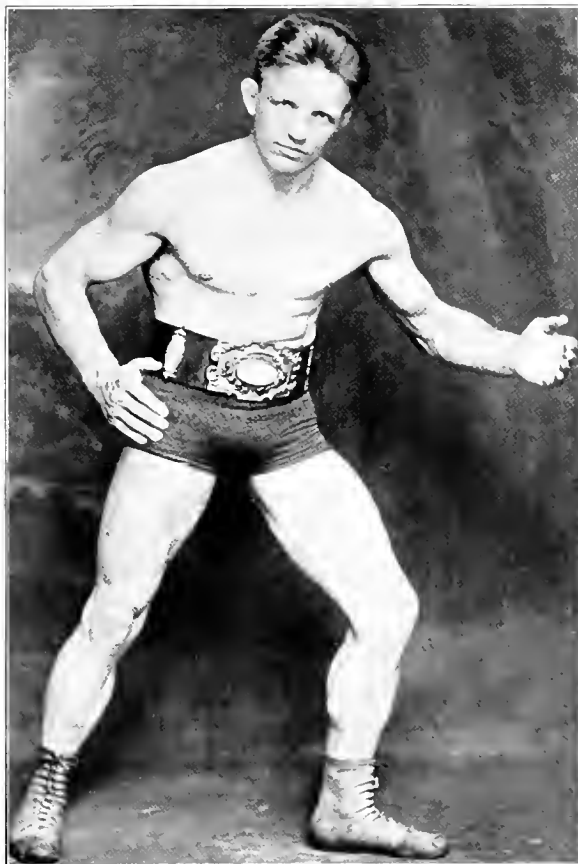

The future prospects for athletics seem very bright indeed. Our football and basketball teams gained the deep respect of the Conference teams we met. So great is this respect, that at present not a single Ohio Conference team will select Ohio as an easy game.

In looking forward to the coming baseball and football seasons, one is inclined to be optimistic, in fact very enthusiastic. These teams will make a record which will be the pride of the students not only at the present, but in the future.

It is our aim to keep the fair name of good old Ohio ever at the top. It is our prediction, that the respect and admiration now held for our school will be strengthened by these teams. Let's get the old time Ohio spirit and back them!

Play the game! We are here not to whine and complain, to stay down because we are knocked down, to blame the inequalities of the ground or the unfairness of the umpire. Where there are no difficulties there can be no victories. We are here to win, if we can, in every condition that confronts us, to do our best in any case and do it to the end.

FRANK B. GULLUM

THOR OLSON

International Middleweight Champion Wrestler, Holder of the Lord Lonsdale Gold Belt, Professor of Physical Education and Trainer of Ohio University Athletes.

JIM OSMOND

Where can one find a more popular party about the campus than in the person of "Old Jim"? For many years Jim has been the caretaker of Ohio's gymnasium and athletic field. He has a reputation for having the best-conditioned athletic field of all the Ohio Conference fields.

Jim is a friend of all the students. Although he may speak in a gruff voice at times, yet there is a tone of kindness in it that endears him to all. There will always be a warm spot in the hearts of all Ohio students for "Old Jim."

DEDICATION

*To those few folks who are so small that we are afraid to test them out, this section is frigidly dedicated.
We want them to be mentioned sometime during the obsequies and now feel that our duty is done.*

FOREWORD

Dear Prospective Spectator and Other Temporary Friends:

Throughout the preceding pages you have been reading the loudest and boldest eulogies that the world has ever seen since the time of Cæsar. The seniors wrote their own ads. but each department editor has also done his best to make the inmates of his section feel all puffed up like the poor victim who has been stung by Professor Borger's examinations.

The values which are attached to many of the articles in the preceding pages are as high as the price of the book allows.

You have now reached the Discount Section.

Herein we attempt to show the real Value of everyone. Inflated prices must be punctured. And nothing can eliminate the Useless Vapors better than Distilling; nothing can stifle those whom the Gods have raised above our heads.

Throw open the blast, clinkers, and let the caldron sing a dirge. Prepare the victims for the grill.

Everyone we know is going to be scorched! We've promised you all a little sizzle. There's not a person mentioned in the following pages who hasn't been heard of—or from.

If you are not among the Inflammables it's a sign that you don't deserve recognition. Only the biggest and choicest cuts are used in this particular case. If you are on the menu it's a sign you're big enough to fall through the grate.

Ointments will be distributed at the exits.

The Freshman Bible

Upon arriving at the University you will know that you have come over the Hocking Valley, Baltimore and Ohio or the Kanawha and Michigan. Beyond that, what you know could be written on a one cent stamp and you'd still have room for the Delt chapter roll, which is considerable roll. You will be met at the station by various dignitaries and confident men from the Beta Theta Pi Boarding Club and other menaces to the public health, but BE CRAFTY!!! Size up the Phi Kaps before you choose your feed box. If you are fond of prunes take a look at the Sigs. Make a definite contract in writing about your room when you rent it. Make two copies. Keep one to wrap up your laundry in and give the other to the landlady because she'll take it anyhow. The landlady will keep the document under her pillow but you must obtain it. The Lambda Chis refuse to take anyone who can't beat their landlady. (This is, by the way, the only qualification.)

You may want to register in the University, but now after thirty years experience we can't give you any advice that will help you get started. No one has ever entered yet without losing five years of the rear end of his life. If you are finally admitted into the University there are several pastimes in which you can spend your first few days. You can sleep, write to the girl, get acquainted with Bea Sawyer or go down to the College Inn. Class attendance is supposed to start at once but most people know the meaning of the word "supposed" before they enter college. Be careful in choosing your classes. Never get into the same section with Torch or Cresset for fear you might make one of them in your Freshman year. Never go to a seven-thirty class on Monday. The instructor will not be expecting you, unless it be Dr. Chrisman. You may have some trouble with your money. Everyone else has. Ask for advice. You'll get it. Don't follow it. Everyone else has. Start a bank account. You must gain the notoriety of having passed a worthless check or you'll never get acquainted with the money men of the town. Start out to live within your income, then get converted.

Don't spend less than 150% of your allowance. It isn't good to be conspicuous. Don't buy everything. Don't join anything. The Y. M. C. A., Theta Omicron Chi Boys, and Class Six are worthy of consideration. If you want to get acquainted with a big circle of folks join the Phi Kappa Taus. If you want to be known as a sport join the Chi Omegas. Don't be in a hurry to pledge yourself to any fraternity. It is never too late to join the Phi Deltas. If you wish to drop a subject from your course do it regularly, every week or so. If you want information or advice or anything in the world ask Gus White. Before selecting a Doctor consult a member of the faculty. He may be a doctor himself. If you want a job go to the Y. M. C. A., then to the Dean's office and then strike out for yourself. That's what they will advise you to do. In choosing your course do not feel that you should prepare yourself for some definite end. You are likely to choose wrong. Look at the Liberal Education and something may turn up for you. Earl Shadrack remembers, however, the night when the Jack of Spades wouldn't turn up for him and he had to lose the pot. Some people should never go to college; those who do not care for books (except Dere Mabel); those who have no intellect like Bateman; those having the power to be ambitious should not consider a college course.

When he is able to roll a cigarette with one hand the education of a Freshman is almost completed. All that is needed is a little training in the essence of argumentation with Professor Simpson.

Get over the notion that you are supposed to study. Do your work in the summer time. Now, according to your ideas and the ideas of your home community, studies are the important things in college. Of course no one at home knows. Men with religious tendencies will find excellent opportunities.

The Y. M. C. A. is in good with the authorities. In the first floor of East Wing is the office of somebody who's never in. On the second floor is the Green and White Office. That is the best place we know of to loaf. Be a pride to your family. If you can't do that you can at least be a pride to your fraternity, especially if it is Delta Tau Delta. With these kind words the book is closed for better or for worse.

THE FIRST SHOT

Our Joke Editor Says:

"In the beginning, all jokes were intended to be original—the product of our own fertile brain. But, as the publication time drew nigh, we found it necessary to use a little exchange stuff, in order to demonstrate by comparison the surpassing excellence of our own concoctions."

"So, gentle reader, when you run across a merry jest which tickles your very toe-tips, pause and compare it with some of the more tragic raillery. You will glean therefrom the superiority of our own over the contributed dope. And if, perchance, you have heard some of our side-splitters before, the humble humorist apologizes for lack of discretion. He just had to tell one of two of the girls—confidentially, to be sure—of that which was uppermost in his mind. And, brother, you know what that means—the product of his imagination became at once the property of the masses. So there you are. The poetry is all original. Read it once and you will agree with us."

"If you read something in our columns which goes against the grain, keep calm. Don't get peeved. Show the proper spirit; take it the way it is meant. Believe us, or believ us not, we intend no harm. He who can be merry when the cards are against him is the true sport. Take us editors, for example; this book is a joke on us. But we don't stand around with sullen eyes and drooping mouth, looking as though we had lost our last friend and cursing humanity in general. Far be it from such. So Ignatz, meet us half way; if we happen to break in where your Angora is holding forth, just forget it and no harm will be done."

DUST ON THE SOFA

They sat on the time-worn sofa. A faint smudge showed on the horizon of Mark's upper lip.

"Elizabeth," he gurgled, "tell me truly, do you or do you not like my new moustache?"

Elizabeth stirred gently, oh, so gently. Her big brown eyes clung to the horizon. "Mark," she whispered, oh, so tenderly, "Mark, just between you and me, I don't." (And outside the milk bottle shivered with the cold.)

HEY, DOC

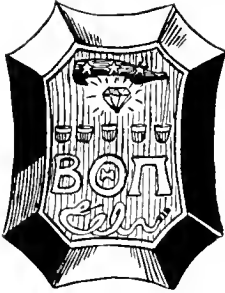

Mabel—"Bate, will you buy me a nut sundæ?"

Bate—"I don't think I'll be there Sunday, but if I—"
Stand back, boys, and give him air.

BETA THETA PI

Beta Theta Pi was organized as a corporation for the purpose of conducting a building and loan association with a summer resort in connection. As soon as a guest is registered he is taken around the place and the various points of interest are indicated. He is then given a lecture on the many great men who have lived in the hotel in previous years, and the guest goes to bed worn out and peppless. After three nights of this ordeal his baggage is attached so that he can't escape the wrecking crew, consisting of Cameron, Fuller, White, Wyman, and with Marshman to administer the anesthetic creep stealthily into the room of the guest and nail a button to his coat while he is asleep in his double decker.

Betas wear an oblong badge with the corners worn off. At the top are three stars, representing the three men they have had in the service.

Beta stands for the word Bouta, an ancient cryptic symbol for something. Theta represents Thousand. Thousand is the maximum number of pledges any chapter may have, excepting in time of war.

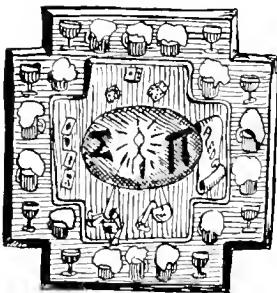

Pi is the initial letter in the word Pledges, as usual. Bouta Thousand Pledges, a slogan of which any chapter may be proud—if they wanted to fight the Germans.

99 44 100^c. Parc.

SIGMA PI

Sigma Pi was founded one hot afternoon at Vincennes University out of spite. The Betas had organized shortly before, and some fellows got together in another society just to show the newly-manufactured Betas that anyone, no matter if they were the scum of the school, could be fratters. Sigma Pi has ever since reverently lived up to the spirit with which its founders established it, and today it is the prize roughneck organization of the modern world.

The pin is a bloated cross. Sigma begins the meaningful word Segregated. When the chapter was founded, respectable people segregated themselves from the Sigma Pi bunch. Pi represents the word Prisoners, because Sigma Pi is the only fraternity which does not exclude convicted criminals from membership. This accounts for "Dick's" presence. Segregated Prisoners. May she segregate them in the future as successfully as she has in the past!

99 44 100^c. Parc.

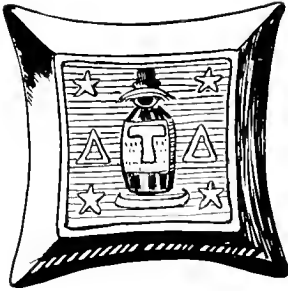

DELTA TAU DELTA

Delta Tau Delta was founded at Bethany College, but as soon as the Deltas got away from Bethany they ruined the name of the school and the poor little institution went broke. From the class of students they had we'd say the school was pretty low any way.

The pin is a sway-backed square, with the symbols Delta Tau Delta emblazoned on it. At each corner is a star, because something had to be stuck there to illuminate such a sad enigma as Delta Tau Delta. Near the top is an open eye, the only unbleared eye in the fraternity.

The first Delt is for the word driven, which means they were driven into it. Tau is for to. It was selected for its several meanings, to, too and two. The last Delt is for the word drink, which is a word stolen from the Delt ritual by Noah Webster. Driven to Drink is half of the Delt ritual.

PHI KAPPA TAU

Phi Kappa Tau—Newman belongs.

The most important facts have now been published. This so called fraternity was organized for the purpose of providing a home for a certain class of people in schools where Phrenocon was excluded.

Phi in this case represents Publicity. After what the lecturer has said this evening about P. K. T. and publicity the connection may be easily discerned. Kappa represents Knocks. The Phi Kaps are well acquainted with this enigmatic expression. Tau represents the little word Them. In this case it means everyone, but those who wear the Phi Kap pin. Publicity Knocks Them. It pays to advertise. You are asked to draw your own conclusions.

99 44/100% Pure.

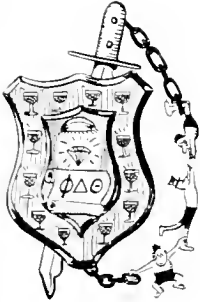

PHI DELTA THETA

Phi Delta Theta was founded during the Revolution or the Spanish American war, or some other time when the authorities were too busy to pay any attention to them. The purpose for the conspiracy has never been made public, but it is suspected that it is supposed to keep the Phi Kaps from spending all their time in church.

Their pin is plain and every one knows that the sword stands for defiance. Phi means agitation, in this case. In some cases it might stand for pleasure, but in this case agitation. Delta means to. What a harmless little syllable is the word to, and how harmless are the P D Ts, and simple. Theta stands for the word Ostracise. Of course you knew it from the first. Agitation to Ostracise, and we back the cause heartily. It should have the support of every liberty loving man in school.

99 44 100', Pure.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

Lambda Chi Alpha was founded by Hercules and Atlas a few years ago as they stood hand in hand gazing at the Colossus of Rhodes. Then and there the idea came to them that there should be an organization of strong men, sinewy of back and infinitesimal of mind. Thus sprang into existence the good frat Lambda Chi Alpha.

At the present time a rushee at the L. C. A. house is conducted to the examination room where his lung capacity, blood pressure, grip strength and lifting ability are tested. If he is up to specifications he is bid. The rest of the ceremony will not be related, out of deference to the size of the L. C. A. boys. The powers of any Lambda Chi are unrivalled. It is said that Jess Willard turned down a L. C. pledge three times, and we have also heard that the Chicapo chapter requested from the national club (composed of fine, large men) the right to initiate Jack Johnson. The request was refused, not on the grounds of color, but because Jim Jeffries was probably a L. C. and Johnson didn't treat Jeffries in a brotherly manner.

A STUDENT'S PSALM

Because of my teachers I shall not pass.
 They maketh me to burn the midnight oil for my credits sake.
 Even though I lie awake nights thinking up new bluffs,
 I shall fear all evil; for they are grading me.
 They prepare a quiz for me in the presence of my ignorance.
 They filleth my heart with dread; my head runneth over,
 Surely brain fever shall follow me all the days of my life
 And I shall dwell at Ohio forever.

Latest Flashes from the Front

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT, CLINE'S FRONT WINDOW—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

Small detachment of Delts found half shot near Nelsonville. Fritz Frederick of the intelligence department reported many dead soldiers in the vicinity.

SOMEWHERE IN ATHENS—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

Two girls seen wandering on the streets after 9 P. M. without proper guard protection. A quarter squad, with camels, were dispatched to their aid.

Flash: Aid party not heard from at late hour.

CLINE'S—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

Several men killed in patriotic riot before the counter at The Palace. The call for the men to take the injection of coke serum ensued in a riot for places at the injecting table. Two of the first in line were torn to pieces during the efforts of the fellows behind to dislodge them.

O. U. CAMP SECTOR—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

Charge of the six hundred surpassed when some crazed person entered the front line trenches about four o'clock and passed the examinations.

UPPERLIP FRONT—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

Twenty seniors have sought concealment in the brush. The scarcity of foliage at this time of year and its slow growth puts the lives of the twenty in considerable danger.

Flash:—Detachment of female hussars have put twelve of the loyal defenders to rout. The remainder are still in concealment.

SUNNYSIDE FRONT—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

Phi Kappa Tau Company of Irregulars announces the addition of twenty-seven recruits. They are bivouaced at the East State barracks.

CONGRESS STREET—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

Sigs announce indications of extensive mining operations in immediate vicinity. House rocked upon foundation as by an earthquake. Squad dispatched to investigate.

Flash: Learned from Lambda Chi and Phi Delt pickets that a Ford had just passed down Court Street at a high rate of speed.

DELTA TAU OUTPOSTS—FEBRUARY 31—SPECIAL

News of the advance of the Foreign Legion of Phi Kappa Tau upon the stronghold of Pan Hell announced here today. The latter is expected to succumb at any moment.

FEET!

SOTTO VOCE

Prof.—“And I may say, that I am the greatest living authority on this subject—”
Sotto Voce in the Rear—“Whassa matter? Did he kill all the rest?”

“Oh Harold! If you should die first will you wait for me on the other side?”
“I suppose so, Arabella. I never went any place yet that I didn't have to wait for you.”

POST-BELLUM SUGGESTIONS FOR ARMY OFFICERS

The gold bars of a second lieutenant make excellent lingerie pins for wives and sweethearts.

Field glasses can be used effectively back of the twelfth row at the theatre.

Military trousers may be worn for golf.

Commissions, when framed and hung on the wall, look like Harvard diplomas.

The black and gold cord on service hats can be used with telling effect in milady's coiffure.

Sam Brown belts, when disassembled, can be used for razor straps.

Woolen roll puttees can be cut and nailed down for weather strips.

Silver eagles worn by colonels can pass for brooches on any woman's waist.

Spurs can be used, after short practice, for cancelling cheques or making hamburg steak.

Any schoolboy can strap his text-book in an officer's belt.

An officer's whistle makes a neat gift for your favorite postman.

A DISGUISED BLESSING

A soldier who had been unable to change his socks for several days felt that a blister was coming on one of his toes. On removing the sock he found a little roll of paper which had been irritating his toe. On it was written: “God bless your poor tired feet!”

CUT-UPS.

Poffenbarger (at Colonial)—“Do you serve lobsters here?”

Waiter—“Yes, we serve anything. Sit right down.”

Prof. Treudley—“Speaking of mottoes, Bro. Silvus, what is your motto of life?”

Abie Silvus—“To flunk is but honor; to get by divine.”

THE END OF A PERFECT WAR

(A dozen reasons why 200,000 American soldiers will marry and remain in France.)

1. The French woman is tickled to death to get a franc (20 cents) a day.
2. Arises at 8 a. m. but won't let her husband see her until noon.
3. Knows how to make love without reference to Dun or Bradstreet.
4. As clever as sin, but never known to admit it.
5. Adept at cosmetics without attracting a bull a mile away.
6. Always contented in knowing her husband is her master.
7. Subtle enough to mix jealousy and pride without a war.
8. Ever a sweetheart, no matter how many wrinkles in her brow.
9. Delights to read the Bible in one hand and Balzac in the other.
10. Smokes, drinks and swears so naively that even the gods chuckle.
11. Knows just when to flatter and when to praise.
12. Kisses more fervently than buying a postage stamp.

Mary R.—“Oh Pud, I'm so cold, I must have something around me.”

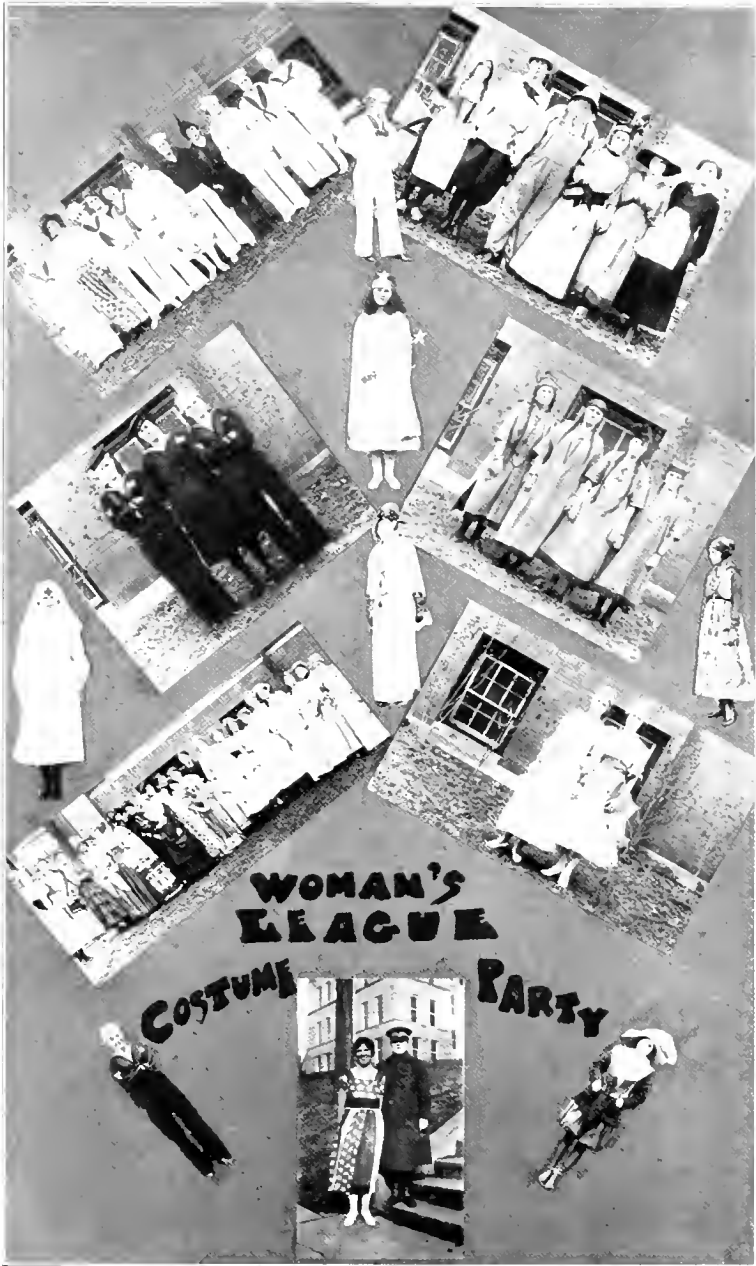

Pud—“What do you care to have?”

Mary—“Oh, anything—”

The manly Pud leaped to his feet, crossed the porch with great strides, entered the hallway, seized a shawl from the rack, and, in the nick of time, saved the fair Mary from a bad cold, or the Flu, or what not.”

Sig—“I saw that girl across the street get into her new Flanders this morning.”

Phi Kap—“Smatter, did she forget to pull the window blinds down?”

HIS CELESTIAL JOB

Sergeant (blowing whistle)—“Private Buck, get out on detail.”

Private Buck—“For heaven’s sake, when do I rest?”

Sergeant—“You will rest when you get to heaven.”

Private Buck—“Well, I hope so, but I’ll bet a dose of gold fish I won’t be in heaven ten minutes when just as I lie down and the angels come over to my bed and start singing to me, old boy Sergeant Gabriel will toot his whistle and say, ‘Private Buck, get up. You’re on detail tonight, go down and hang out the stars.’”

Rock—“May I call this evening?”

Frances—“Why, yes, if you remember that father turns out the lights promptly at ten.”

Rock—“Thank you, I will be there promptly at ten.”

First Student—“We have an exam in Business Correspondence, tomorrow.”

Bill Leeper—“Well, there’s ten minutes more work tonight that I hadn’t counted on.”

MINNIE. THE SMELLING SALTS

"Miss Morrison, is that young man gone yet?" called the matron at ten bells.
 "Yes, completely." came the answer.

HOW'S THE WEATHER?

Ice Dealer—"Rotten! Too cold for ice."
 Coal Dealer—"Punk! Too warm for coal."
 Doctor—"Fine! Just right for Flu."

I-WA-TWA

First Co-ed—"Did Fergie say anything dove-like about me?"
 Second Co-ed—"Yes, he said you are pigeon-toed."

COLLEGE MATH

Lucille Patterson (a Freshman)—"What are those numbers on the backs of the football men for?"
 Mary Reichelderfer (an Upperclassman)—"The men add them up, divide by two, and the one who gets the answer first is the one who runs with the ball."

HOT STUFF

Butch—"I have a friend who suffers terribly from the heat."
 Stocky—"Where does he live?"
 Butch—"He isn't living."

THERE'S A REASON

Hoover—"It seems to me that the choir hasn't been so good lately as it used to be."
 Chapman—"Yes, confound it, I have had a cold now, for nearly a month."

PAGES FROM AN OHIO DICTIONARY

CHAPEL—A place of assembly where the faculty and student body vie with one another in being bored utterly; the former having a monopoly on cutting as a means of relief.

CHAPERONE—A piece of superfluous and long suffering female impedimenta toted to social functions to appease the manes of obsolete convention.

CHEQUE—A piece or bit of financial paper furnished by father at irregular intervals and most often overdue, the non-arrival of which furnishes an excuse for floating loans and charging pool games and tobacco upon the security of its ultimate appearance.

CINCH—Something which looks easy but isn't, as pledging your life-long friend who joins another fraternity or passing a Math. exam the third time up.

CINDER—A byproduct of coal combustion; the little thing that made the B. & O. famous; used principally as a dressing for running tracks and to furnish business for the oculists.

COIN—Material resources, the supposed possession of the likable freshman and the girl you are fussing before you become well acquainted with either, in reality with but rare exceptions non-existent save on Wall Street and in the imagination.

CONCERT—An orgie of sound, Bedlam, pandemonium, something to take your best girl to providing you are equipped with an ear trumpet or know the complete code of looks and hand pressure, often slightly expensive, particularly with chaperone accessories.

COURAGE—That quality in oneself which in another is known as guts.

CRAM—To forcibly feed oneself with the fruit of the tree of knowledge in anticipation of trials to come; to sacrifice permanency to the needs of the immediate future; to expiate the sins of a semester in the agony of an all-night session.

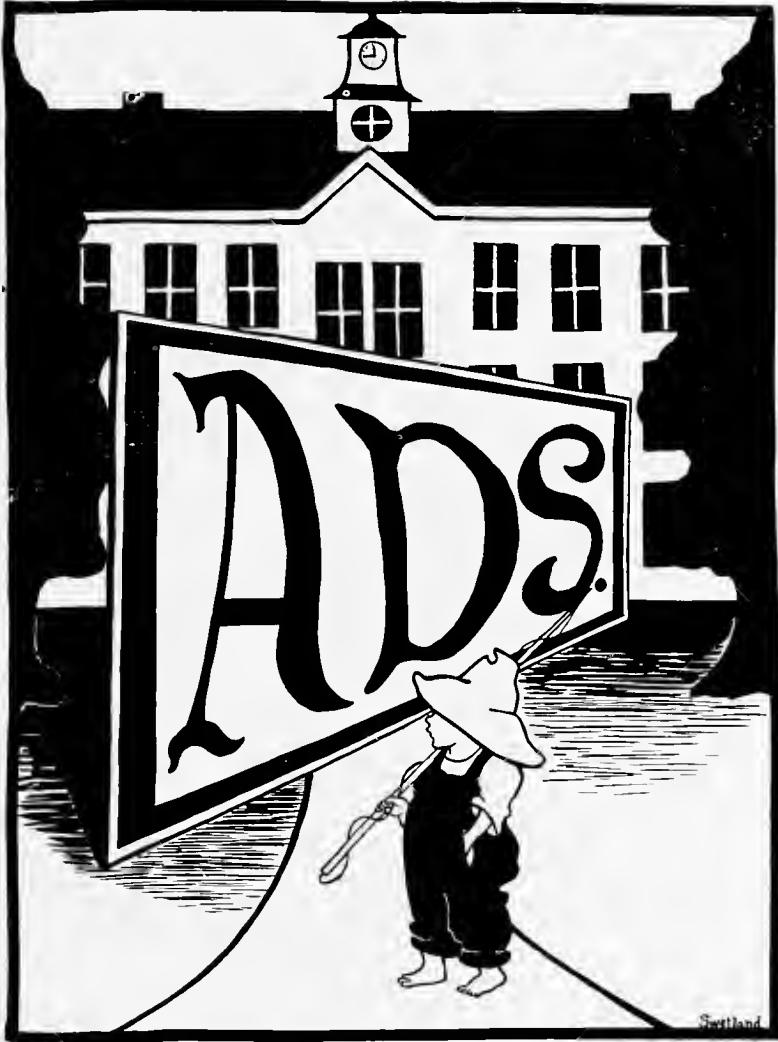

CRUMB—One who does the thing you can't, who might be a successful rival, or, one whose hobbies are not yours; in either case never a member of your organization.

CUR—Another fraternity's dog.

CUSPIDOR—See gaboon.

REWARD

Not as dangerous and far more remunerative than capturing horse-thieves and burglars would be to trade with the best firms in Athens. These advertisers are the liveliest people in Athens and are the most interested in the Ohio University. We told them that you would trade with them if they advertised in the 1919 ATHENA. Won't you do it? If they did not advertise it was not because they were not given a chance. Be governed in your shopping by the ATHENA.

AN EDUCATION IN COAL SAVING

During 1918, the U. S. Government placed a restriction on coal used by the Clay Industries of the country. This restriction cut production to about a half. Plants ran half the time. Expensive equipment was idle. Building was restricted and labor was out of employment. Coal is a big item in the Clay Industry, and this crippling of the Clay Industry saved coal of course. The government reports showed that in six months the restriction of the Clay Industry saved 1,381,000 tons of coal, but look what it lost the industry in cash.

Sixty-four clay plants of the country furnish authentic information on their burning cost from which it is shown that if all the brick (just brick, mind you) made in the U. S. were burned in Haigh Continuous Kilns, the saving of coal would amount to 2,600,000 tons every year.

It cost six months of idleness of all clay plants to save that amount but it showed the possibility of saving through the use of the Haigh Kiln. Much more would have been saved if Tile, Pavers, Hollow Ware and other products had been burned in Haigh Kilns. The saving can be made every year and the manufacturer gets the saving. Haigh Kilns cut the burning cost more than one-half.

We will be pleased to furnish information on burning with a Haigh Continuous Kiln on request.

We build every machine and appliance for the manufacture of every class of Clay Products.

CORK BORERS WITH INDIVIDUAL HANDLES

No. 7173B

More convenient than the old style cork borers without handles. Made from hard brass tubing, sharp cutting edges, solid brass handles. Each set provided with punch. Hard brass borers have sharper cutting edges, are easier to resharpen, and less likely to corrode in the chemical laboratory than steel borers.
